There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die. - Ecc 3:1-2

St. Teresa of Avila was the abbess of a cloistered, Carmelite community in the 16th century. One time on a fast day, the convent received a generous donation of pheasant. So, being ever practical, St. Teresa cooked it up for the sisters. When some of the sisters were appalled that she would do this on a fast day, she said, "Let them think that they like. There is a time for penance, and there is a time for pheasant."

I often think of this as we move from the season of Lent into the season of Easter. The world thinks that we're nuts. We go from being scrupulous and sacrificial to being jubilant and celebratory basically overnight. It seems strange to many that this would be the case. But this is normal, healthy human behavior. We are meant to be very cyclical creatures. The earth itself is cyclical, as we move through the seasons of the year. It's interesting that as technology increases, we actually become less cyclical. I remember when fruit used to be seasonal. Now, you can get watermelon in winter if you want. The whole point of certain festive holiday foods was because we eat what is in season at that point in time. Now, if we want, we could have anything for Easter dinner. It is possible to live a life that is non-seasonal. Always the same, never changing.

Being the same all the time is unhealthy for us. Seasons are important. Some seasons are joyful; others are not. We all have our Lents and our Easters in life. It's helpful to remember that when things are difficult in life, it's only a season. It will change. At some point, our Lents will become Easters.

As Ecclesiastes 3 reminds us, there is a time to weep and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance. Lent and Easter need one another in this life. Joy and sorrow, fasting and pheasanting accompany each other until we arrive at the final season in the next life - the eternal Easter where we leave sorrow and fasting behind & enter the fullness of joy forever.

EASTER JOY

Six long weeks have just been spent, Going through the season of Lent.

Easter Sunday is here at last, No longer do we have to fast. Although, Lent has finally passed, And we no longer have to fast.

Daily fasting would definitely be, So beneficial for you and me.

Florentz Kirsch

Easter Daily Devotion

This is the day the Lord has made! Fill me with joy in the Resurrection this day and every day, O Lord.

This is the day the Lord has made! Bless me this day and every day through the Spirit's power and grace.

This is the day the Lord has made! Guide me this day and every day to be a sign of your eternal love. Alleluia!

Notes from our Administrator,
Fr. Paul:

THE UNFOLDING MESSAGE: BLESSINGS

What a blessing it must have been for Jesus to have that gentle walk to Emmaus! After years of ministry, with confrontations, misunderstandings, a cruel trial & crucifixion, finally resurrection came. Jesus had fulfilled His mission. Now, He wanted to help people understand what it all meant.

What a blessing it must have been for Jesus' companions to have that gentle walk to Emmaus! Two believers walked out from Jerusalem about seven miles. They did not recognize the person they encountered, but they listened with rapt attention to His words. Gradually they realized that what they had learned from Jesus over recent years all fit together in God's plan. The difficulties & the final tragic loss had been the birth pangs of a new & promising kingdom; not an earthly power, but a spiritual power, that could transform their life. Their inner eyes were opened and gradually their outer eyes enabled them to know that it was Jesus. Jesus was still with them. Can we today hear the message, now fully unfolded before our eyes? Can we have a gentle walk with Jesus to whatever our destination may be? We may say, "Happy Easter!" It might be better to say, "Blessed Easter!" Feel the blessing of knowing that all of our life is in God's hands & we are on the road to fulfillment. It is Jesus who is our constant companion. Jesus helps us see that the struggle of life is worthwhile. We are part of a universal struggle toward the reign of love and peace.

Each of us has a role to play in that struggle, but we are not alone. God is with us. Other believers are with us, even though their particular understanding of God may vary from ours. We are all part of God's household. Experience God's blessing, Christ's blessing, & walk on, as a living disciple, to share what you have learned. Be a blessing to others. May the peace and joy of the Risen Christ fully envelop you today and throughout the Easter Season. Our entire parish staff and I wish you a very Blessed and Joyous Easter.

~Fr. Paul & Fr. Dan

RCIA: At the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday, Jacob Armel, Jason Besterci, Tammy DeFlorio, John Ersick, Jr., and Casie Overly were welcomed as new members of our parishes. They made their profession of faith or Baptism and received First Holy Communion & Confirmation. They have been studying every week since fall. Let us encourage them with our prayers and support. We congratulate them and welcome them as our newest parishioners.

THE LEGEND OF THE DOGWOOD Long ago, of all the trees that towered strong and tall, the dogwood stood above the rest, the stateliest tree of all. This was the tree the soldiers stood on Calvary's bare hillside, cut down and carved into the cross on which the Savior died. But Jesus blessed the dogwood so that now it is a tree, low-branched and bending earthward for the smallest child to see. Each of its cross-shaped blossoms bear four nail prints stained with red, and the heart of every bloom is like the thorns which crowned His head. And though this tree reminds us of the sorrow on that hill, each spring its life and beauty show that Christ lives with us still.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY, APRIL 7: On the Sunday after Easter, people all over the world will gather to celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy. From Sr. Faustina's Diary, it is clear that this Octave Day of Easter is a day chosen by Christ as a day of extraordinary graces, a complete outpouring of His mercy upon all who approach Him with great trust and expectant faith. We will be having a special Prayer Service at 2:00 p.m. at Christ Our Shepherd Center, Route 30 East, Greensburg. Bishop Kulick will be the main celebrant. During this time, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be prayed. We pray together as a diocese on this special feast of Divine Mercy. Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend!

The Lay Apostles group will meet on Monday, April 1 at 2 p.m. at St. Pius X.

ST. PIUS X CHRISTIAN MOTHERS' meeting on Wed., April 3 in the St. Pius X social hall at 6 p.m.

Immaculate Conception Connellsville's Holy Name Society is having a PANCAKE & SAUSAGE BREAKFAST on Sun., Apr. 7 in their social hall, from 7:30-11:30 am. $7

Deacon John Torres of the Diocese of Greensburg and parishioner of St. Rita of Cascia, will be ordained to the order of the Presbyterate on June 1, 2024, at 10 am in Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, Greensburg, PA, by The Most Reverend Larry J. Kulick, JCL, Bishop of Greensburg. Please keep Deacon John in your prayers as he prepares for his ordination, along with those discerning a vocation to the priesthood.

The Visitation Christian Mothers have planned their "Welcome-Back" meeting for the year. It will be held on Thursday, April 18, at 6:00 p.m., in the Community Center. The Chairperson for the gathering is Lorrie Hunker, and the Co-chair is Karen Kurimcak. Our theme for the meeting honors "Earth Day", which is April 22. Representatives from "Westmoreland Cleanways and Recycling" will present information relative to our theme. Changes to the organization, made over the winter months will be announced. Looking forward to our return. As always, all Ladies of the parish are welcome to attend, including "Single Ladies". ~Jan

HOSPITAL/NURSING HOME STAYS

Federal law has affected the longstanding practice of hospitals and nursing homes to provide information to Churches about parishioners who are patients/residents. Because of the privacy law, the priests & staff in the parish office are not always aware that a member has been admitted to a hospital or nursing facility. If you, or a member of your family are hospitalized or enter a long-term care facility, please call the office & identify the patient/resident, the hospital or nursing home and the room number. Direct notice to the parish from you or your family is a better approach to keeping us informed. If the parish does not receive word, Father will do his best to obtain information about parishioners, but hospitals & nursing homes are limited to divulge this information.

WHO IS CONSIDERED A PARISHIONER?

We are often asked how we define who is a parishioner. A parishioner is: *Baptized Catholic, *Registered member or one of our parishes, *Participant in the faith community of our parishes by regular Mass attendance here. If you are currently registered with your parents but are 18 or older, independent & employed (not a student), you should register individually as a parishioner. Those who aren't registered and who don't actively participate in the parish faith community aren't considered members. Baptism at any parish doesn't mean you're automatically considered a lifelong member.

What is a sponsor certificate & how is one obtained?

A sponsor certificate verifies that a person belongs to a particular parish and attends Sunday Mass regularly there. The certificate also verifies that someone fulfills all the Church requirements to be a sponsor for Baptism & Confirmation, including age, the completion of the Sacraments of Initiation, and if married, being in a valid marriage. Call the office if you need a sponsor certificate. Sometimes when a person is asked to be a sponsor, he or she is unsure of this role or the Church's expectations. Those who are choosing sponsors are advised to choose carefully.

TABLE PRAYER FOR THE SEASON OF EASTER
Let all the earth acclaim the Lord! Let all the earth acclaim the Lord!

On this Feast of feasts we are filled with Easter joy, nourished by the fruits of the earth.

On this Feast of feasts we know Christ in the breaking of bread and his presence in those we love.

On this Feast of feasts we know Christ present in the poor and hungry; our service to them is a sign of his glory.
Alleluia!

Let the earth acclaim the Lord on this Feast of feasts.
May we be blessed at this table and at the heavenly banquet. Amen.

I wish to thank everybody who contributed in any way to the success of our parish Lenten Fish Fries. The dinners served on the Fridays of Lent were, as always, very rewarding and beneficial, not only monetarily, but also emotionally and spiritually for our parishes. We, once again, proved that when we come together as a family, we can have fun and enjoyment. We thank all who patronized our dinners so faithfully this year. We would like to thank all who were involved and present in the parish hall: the cooks, the cashiers, the waitresses, the servers, the dishwashers, the phone operators, the bus persons, and all who helped one way or another. We also thank all those who worked behind the scenes to make the fish fries happen: those who made the haluski, piroghis & pasta, sliced and fried the onions, took out the trash, cleaned the hall, did the shopping, baked the cakes & other goodies, and stocked the shelves. These people are not always in view, but their hard work makes it possible. We are still paying some bills and as soon as we have some final figures, we will publish them. Thank you and God bless! I also thank those of you who went above and beyond the call once again by helping, not only with the Fish Fries, but also with all other special requests. God knows exactly how much you do for His parish family and He will bless you assuredly. ~Fr. Paul

A few weeks ago, Visitation Parish held their purse/cash bash. It was a wonderful afternoon filled with friendship, food, fun and frivolity. Also, there was a group of lucky winners. I thank Barb Golobish and her entire committee who spearheaded the whole venture. I'm pleased to announce the final fundraising numbers for the event. The income for the afternoon was $14,591, and the expenses were $3,777.08. The profit was $10,813.92. That is a great accomplishment for our parish of Visitation. I thank all who volunteered and all who played a part. ~Fr. Paul

VISITATION

Please remember your parish in your will. We request you to remember the Church in your estate. One of the interesting statistics regarding “wills” is that over half of the adults who die each year, die without a will. Another interesting statistic is that very few parishioners remember their local parish church with a charitable bequest at the time of their death. This could become a source of income for the future when our parish may not be as “blessed” as it is today. The potential is great and we request that you consider remembering your parish in your will. For information, please speak to your attorney or Fr. Paul. Please remember to make our parish your favorite charity.

EASTER: Feasting around the world!

Holiday meals have developed strong culinary traditions all over the world.

Main Dishes
Eating lamb connects us to the Paschal Lamb as well as the ancient Jewish Passover feast. In America, ham became common because meat butchered in the fall and smoked was ready to eat around Easter.

Eggs, butter, cheese
The Lenten fast was once much more stringent than what Roman Catholics are required to observe today. For 40 days, not only meat but animal products such as cheese, butter & eggs were off-limits. For this reason, those foods figure prominently in Easter culinary traditions.

Breads
In the Ukraine, a white bread called paska is decorated with religious symbols, including crosses, flowers, braids, & wheat. Ukrainians & Russians also eat babka or kulich, a tall cylindrical-shaped sweet raisin bread. The Dutch offer paasbrood, a sweet bread made with almond paste, raisins & candied nuts. In Spain, hornazo is stuffed with egg & sausage. In Italy, two sweet breads are common: colomba, shaped like a dove, and pane di pasqua, which may be in loaf form or braided with an egg in the center.

I want to thank all who have participated in the DLA to this point, and ask those who have not, to please consider doing so now. To date, less than 50% of our parishioners have helped us meet our goal, so please pray about the gift you can give to your parish. Please remember no gift is too big or too small. The amount raised over our diocesan target will allow us to perform the projects that were outlined in my letter to you. You can view below the amount of our goal and where our parishes stand on the way to reaching it. Thank you for helping our Diocese and parishes. -Fr. Paul

VISITATION: $17,730 pledged/$36,773 Diocesan goal
ST. PIUS X: $20,907 pledged/$48,807 Diocesan goal (as of 3-16-24)

The Parish Office will be closed on Easter Monday. The office will reopen on Tuesday, April 2 at 9:30 a.m.

A poor peddler went to the marketplace to sell a basket of eggs. He came upon a crowd mocking a man who staggered with a heavy cross on which He was about to be crucified. The peddler ran to His aid, leaving the basket by the roadside. When he returned, he found the eggs brightly transformed! The man was Christ. The peddler, Simon, & the eggs were to become a symbol of rebirth for all mankind.

CLEARANCES

With the approach of another season of fundraising and also the need for new liturgical ministers, our parishes are in the process of updating the clearances of our volunteers. Please know that your participation is essential to the life of our parishes. I would ask you please to cooperate when contacted by the member of our parish staff, Theresa Turner, who is in charge of our clearances database. When you are contacted by her, please respond in a timely manner so that we can keep all clearances current. If you are anticipating volunteering for the first time, please contact the office to begin the process, which is really easy and simple. Thank you for your cooperation.
