St. Pius X Christian Mothers Meeting

The Christian Mothers will meet on Wednesday, April 26th at 6:30pm in St. Pius social hall.

Rosary for Peace

Everyone is invited to Visitation Church every Wednesday @ 11:30am to pray the Rosary.

From the Desk of Fr. Paul

I would like to take this opportunity to extend to all of you a very grateful and sincere word of thanks for all that you did to make the Lenten Season, Holy Week and Easter such a spiritually and prayerfully rewarding time. The Liturgies of Holy Week, the Easter Sunday Masses, the wonderful participation in the stations, the attendance for confessions and Masses, and the participation at the blessing of food baskets made this past Liturgical Season a holy experience for all of us here at our parishes. I wish to thank all the ushers, cantors, choir, lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, sacristans and altar servers for your dedicated help. Thanks to Sheryl for directing the choir. To the volunteers and staff who helped to decorate the Churches for Palm Sunday, Holy Week and Easter, I say Thank You! Your gift of time was a pleasing and prayerful gift to God. I also thank you for your generosity you showed to Fr. Dan and myself and the parishes. The cards, gifts of food and candy, and other surprises, showed me how truly blessed I am to be your Administrator and I remember each of you at my Masses. I thank you for your gifts to our parishes in the collections of Holy Week. May God bless you always and in all ways and may our Parishes continue to grow in the way of the Lord.

From the Desk of Fr. Dan

In this you rejoice, although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. – 1 Pt 1:6-7

There is a reason that we are supposed to learn and study Scripture as Christians. There is a reason that, nearly 2,000 years after the final word was penned, the Church still reads and proclaims its message. As the Word of God, it continues to be for all times and all peoples, a source of wisdom and understanding about the important things of life.

In this very brief passage, St. Peter gives a beautiful explanation about why we must suffer here on this earth. He offers two reasons. First, it is to prove our faith to be genuine. It's easy to say "I am strong" if you never need to lift a heavy box or unscrew a tight jar. We can say, "My faith is strong", but until that faith is tested, we do not know how strong it is. Going through something difficult that tests our faith can help us realize if our faith is not as genuine or strong as we thought.

The second, and perhaps more important reason, is so our faith may "prove to be for praise, glory, and honor" of God. After I broke my arm in Rome and needed surgery, our seminary rector shared with me how edified he was that no one ever heard me complain. It meant something to him and to others that I bore that suffering well. (I only wish I carried all of my sufferings as well as I carried that one.)

We live in a time when suffering is greatly misunderstood. We often see it as useless and to be avoided at all costs. This is because we cannot see the link between faith and suffering. Suffering reveals when our faith is not strong or genuine enough. And when it is strong, it brings glory to God by allowing others to share in our faith's endurance.

Our world may be lacking in faith, but it is not lacking in suffering. May we be inspired by St. Peter to bear our sufferings well so our faith and the faith of others may be strengthened.

First Holy Communion will be celebrated at Visitation Church at the 4:30pm Mass on Saturday, April 22nd and at St. Pius X Church at the 10:30am Mass on Sunday, April 30th, 2023. As welcome family and friends during these celebrations of the Sacrament of First Holy Communion, some seating and pews will be reserved for the First Communicants. I ask your consideration as you plan your attendance at these special Masses.

Our Diocesan Lenten Appeal is under way. You should have received a pledge card in the mail. If you have not received a pledge card please call the office and let us know. A sincere thank you goes out to all who have responded to the DLA. Please remember dear parishioners, return your pledge card at Mass next weekend or return it to the parish office this week. Please mark the outside of your envelope with your home church. In addition, you can pledge online at DioceseofGreensburg.org/OneBody. Our goal is to complete this appeal within the Lenten season, but we need your help and support to do so. Thank you.

Fr. Paul

Unfortunately, the Visitation Christian Mothers have cancelled their scheduled May 18th bus trip to see ‘Moses’ at the ‘Sight and Sound Theater.’ There just wasn’t enough interest. We apologize for any inconveniences this may have caused those who planned for the outing. (Perhaps another time and/or another event.) Angela Overly will be contacting those “nonmembers” who signed up, and will be making arrangements for any refunds owed.

The ‘Spring Return’ meeting for the Visitation Christian Mothers is scheduled for April 20th. The meeting will begin at 6:00pm in the community center. The chairperson for the meeting is Mrs. Veronica Kubasky and the co-chair is Mrs. Mary Griffitt. Updates of where we left off in December and what we plan to do for 2023 will be discussed. The Library Director of the Mount Pleasant Free Public Library, Inc. will present a ‘Show and Tell’ of all that our local library has to offer. All Ladies of our parish are welcome. Thanks, Jan.

Tell Us Please! If you don’t tell us, we won’t know. Help us keep our census up-to-date and our postage down. A crucial part of the continued success of our communication system at our parishes is the constant updating of information about you, our parish family. All mailings, etc...sent out by the parish will be kept accurate if changes of any kind are reported to the office. Our parish secretary is doing the best to be aware of changes in parishioner information; but if no one tells her, then the information in the computer doesn’t give a true picture of our parishes Please help us keep our parish census accurate by calling the parish office at 724-547-1911 with any changes. All information is kept confidential.

Recent Deaths

Please pray for Dr. Joseph Slezak and Veronica Echard who have been laid to rest recently. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest forever in the peace of the Lord.

A Prayer for Divine Mercy

O Greatly Merciful God, Infinite Goodness, today all mankind calls out from the abyss of its misery to Your mercy - to Your compassion, O God; and it is with its mighty voice of misery that it cries out; Gracious God, do not reject the prayer of this earth's exiles! O Lord, Goodness beyond our understanding, Who are acquainted with our misery through and through and know that by our own power we cannot ascend to You, we implore You, anticipate us with Your grace and keep on increasing Your mercy in us, that we may faithfully do Your holy will all through our life and at death's hour. Let the omnipotence of Your mercy shield us from the darts of our salvation's enemies, that we may with confidence, as Your children, await Your final coming - that day known to You alone. And we expect to obtain everything promised us by Jesus in spite of all our wretchedness. For Jesus is our Hope: through His merciful Heart as through an open gate, we pass through to heaven. Amen.

DIVINE MERCY
SUNDAY

© J.S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Today, April 16, is Divine Mercy Sunday

On this day, people all over the world will gather to celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy. From Sister Faustina's Diary, it is clear that this Octave Day of Easter is a day chosen by Christ as a day of extraordinary graces, a complete outpouring of His mercy upon all who approach Him with great trust and expectant faith. Please Note: There are pamphlets available in church that explain the Divine Mercy Novena and Chaplet. These pamphlets are made available free of charge. Please share them with family and friends.

Our Lord said to St. Faustina:

Encourage souls to say the chaplet which I have given you...Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death... When they say this chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as the just Judge but as the Merciful Savior... Priests will recommend it to sinners as their last hope of salvation. Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy. I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy... Through the chaplet you will obtain everything, if what you ask for is compatible with My will.

The Knights of Columbus
Mt. Pleasant Council 3334 will continue to pray the
Divine Mercy
Novena each night at 6pm
at Visitation Church and concluding on Saturday, April 15.

On Divine Mercy Sunday, please join our brothers and sisters from around the diocese for a celebration of Divine Mercy at 2:00pm at Christ Our Shepherd Center, Route 30 East in Greensburg, PA.

This liturgy will include the Divine Mercy Litany, Procession, Eucharistic Adoration and Benedictine. This event is of course, free and open to the entire diocese and beyond. This is a great and blest opportunity for a family outing to pray and worship together. Please prayerfully consider attending as an individual, couple, friends and especially as a family.

Parish Cemeteries

Just a reminder about our parish cemeteries: St. Pius X, Visitation and Transfiguration. Although you are free to purchase family graves at any cemetery, we of course ask you to consider our own parish cemeteries. Please note that our parish cemeteries policy allows only the use of concrete vaults which may be an option in other cemeteries. Our parish and cemeteries do not receive any proceeds from the sale of any funeral or burial merchandise, our interest is that the remains of our deceased loved ones are reverently respected. I would strongly suggest that if you have any questions concerning burial practices to please contact one of our local funeral directors. They are professionals who will be able to assist you and answer any questions. Of course, you are free to contact the office at any time. I wish to take this time to thank once again all of our local funeral directors for their dignity and prayerfulness during our parish funerals and their continued support of our parishes. If you are interested in purchasing lots at any of our cemeteries, please call the parish office.

Just a reminder

No shrubs or small trees are permitted to be planted in the cemeteries. What may seem "small and cute" eventually turns into "overgrown and hard work" when a family no longer cares for the scrub or tree. Flowers are so much more colorful.

ELEMENTARY FAITH FORMATION

Kids in grades K-5 who do not attend Catholic School are encouraged to join us for Tuesday night Faith Formation sessions. We meet from 6-7:30 in the St. Pius School Building. Our next meeting is Tuesday, April 18th.

MIDDLE YOUTH MINISTRY

Kids in grades 6-8 who do not attend Catholic School are encouraged to join us for Tuesday night Middle Youth Group sessions. We meet from 6-7:30 in the St. Pius Hall. Our next meeting is Tuesday, April 25th.

Our Knights of Columbus Council will hold their annual Diaper Drive to benefit local mothers in need.

Donations will be distributed to Alternatives Yes a local pro-life pregnancy support center that helps families through pregnancy and infancy. Help our Knights celebrate motherhood and the gift of life by bringing a pack of diapers to church in May. Any size diapers are welcome. We also welcome any packaged item for infants, such as socks, onesies, bottles, and wipes. Thank you for helping to support God's most precious gift, the Gift of Life. Baskets will be in the entrance of both churches beginning the weekend of April 29 - 30 and remain there the entire month of May for your donations.

The Mass: A Family Reunion

When families hold a reunion, they usually have a reception and a meal. During the reception, members learn who's at the reunion, what's been happening in their lives and what's in store in their future. And, during the meal, the family shares their food and themselves further - and they sense their family-ness with greater intensity and love. At departure, each member leaves more a tone with the family than was felt on arrival. So it is with the Mass. The welcome, the readings and the homily form the reception, a time to discover who we are, why we're together, where we've come from and where we're going. And the offertory, Eucharistic canon, and Communion form the meal, a time to intensify our family heritage in God and each other in the binding love of family. And at the blessing, we go our ways, not separately, but more at one in the family to continue to enjoy and form family in our homes, at work, wherever. From week to week, we are called to unite and reunite in the oneness of the family we now are, the family we shall be forever. This is why we are called to come together so regularly, not for the sermon or the ceremony, but for the presence of one another in the Father and His People.
