Thank You

Thank You to all who traveled to Christ our Shepherd Center in Greensburg last Sunday for the Diocesan Devotion of Divine Mercy. It was a beautiful day and among the over 400 who gathered there was a good representation of St. Pius X and Visitation parishioners. Bishop Kulick had a very inspiring message and the service with the Chaplet, Procession and Benediction was prayerful. To those who drove themselves, I am sure our Lord will bless you for your pilgrimage and celebration of the Divine Mercy Devotion.

Weekday Morning Mass is Moving
Beginning Monday, May 1st weekday morning Mass will be held at St. Pius X Church.

First Holy Communion will be celebrated at St. Pius X Church at the 10:30pm Mass on Sunday, April 30th. As we welcome family and friends during the celebration of the Sacrament of First Holy Communion, some seating and pews will be reserved for the First Communicants. I ask your consideration as you plan your attendance at this special Mass.

Thank You!

A special thank you to the First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association Jr. Branch for their generous Easter gift of $100 to Visitation Parish. Both the Jr. and Sr. branches have been very generous to the parish over the years. Again, the Visitation Parish community is deeply grateful for your generosity.

From the Desk of Fr. Dan

During the days of the Roman Empire, somewhere between 10-20% of the population were slaves. Being a slave was a legal condition at the time. People captured in war or revolts, infants abandoned at birth or children sold by their parents (yes, this happened), and those born into slavery were property, not people, and could be bought and sold at will of their masters.

However, in contrast to modern slavery, Roman slavery offered a path to freedom to reduce disobedience or flight. The slave and master would appear before the Roman magistrate and the slave would “purchase” his or her freedom with a manumission, or ransom. Now, here’s the rub. The slave didn’t have any money or property to offer as a manumission. So, it would seem impossible for the slave to ever be freed. But, after a time of service and often at the death of the master, the master himself would pay the ransom on behalf of the slave in order to free the slave and make him or her a Roman citizen. This path to freedom was called redemption.

With this in mind, read the following from our second reading.

Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct...not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb. – 1 Pt 1:17-19

Since slavery was a well-known and understood reality, the apostles in their letters used redemption as a metaphor to explain what God has won for us. We were all slaves to sin until Jesus Christ offered his blood on the cross for our manumission. This won our freedom from sin and death and allows us to become citizens in heaven. This was a freedom that we could not purchase for ourselves, for no amount of silver or gold or human activity can wash away sins. Only Christ, our true and loving master, could offer a sufficient ransom for our sins – his very blood.

During this Easter season, it is worth knowing why redemption means what it does and it’s worth remembering that we have been rescued from slavery by the blood of Christ.

Rosary for Peace
*Everyone is invited to Visitation
Church every Wednesday @
11:30am to pray the Rosary.*

According to Church Law, Trinity Sunday, June 4, is the last Sunday that you can make your Easter duty. The confessions of sins cleanses us.

Christ in Communion is our strength. Please do not deprive yourself of such gifts as healing, strength and love. Just for clarification the precept of the Church is as follows: Lead a sacramental life; receive Holy Communion frequently and the Sacrament of Penance regularly; and receive the Sacrament of Penance at least once a year between the First Sunday of Lent and Trinity Sunday.

I do wish to share with you the financial success of the Visitation Purse Bash which was held on Sunday, March 12th. The income for that fundraiser was $18,225 and the expenses were $7,129. Therefore a profit of $11,096 was realized for the benefit of Visitation parish. I do thank the committee chair Barb Golobish and the entire committee for their time and effort on behalf of the entire parish family. I also thank all of the volunteers who helped in any way to make this a success. It was a great and fun day which was enjoyed by all in attendance. Thank you and God bless you for your dedication to our parish family.

Fr. Paul

A story which is food for thought on this First Communion Day!

Mei was a little Chinese girl whose mother was put in prison for refusing to surrender her Catholic faith. This was in the 1950's. Since Mei was only three and had nowhere else to go, she stayed with her mother. The prisoners were all guarded carefully, but Mei was allowed to run about everywhere. Among the prisoners was a Bishop and some priests. They could not say Mass, but there were still priests outside the prison who secretly sent in consecrated hosts hidden in loaves of bread that were sent to the prisoners. In that way, the prisoners were able to receive Communion. Once a Chinese woman was in solitary confinement, nobody was allowed to visit her, but the guards did not count Mei as somebody. So the little girl took the Blessed Sacrament to that woman. The host was hidden in her closed fist demurely held in her sleeves. When Mei's mother was released, they returned to their village. There was still a missionary priest there, and Mei kept asking him to allow her to receive Communion. She was only four, but she knew all about it and how precious it was. The priest let her make her First Communion and a month later Mei was Confirmed. Hopefully, every parent, grandparent, Godparent and sponsor will try to make our faith as precious for the children in their care as Mei's mother did for her.

Men: Will you accept the challenge?

We need strong men to answer the call to lead with faith, protect our families, serve others and defend our values. For over 100 years, the Knights of Columbus have done exactly that. Eligible Catholic men can join the Knights online. Visit kofc.org/joinus to learn more about the benefits of membership in the Knights of Columbus.

This Wednesday, April 25 is the Feast of St. Mark, Evangelist (first century).

The Gospel of Mark records a strange detail not told in the other three gospels. In the garden of Gethsemane, when the crowd arrested Jesus, an unnamed young man followed at a distance. The crowd tried to catch the man, but all they could grab was his clothing. He ran away naked. Some people think the young man was Mark. Mark was not an apostle. He was probably a member of one of the first Christian communities. His mother's house in Jerusalem is mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles as a center where Christians gathered. Mark was baptized by Peter. Then they both moved to Rome, where Mark served as Peter's secretary. Mark also traveled with Paul and Barnabas on their first missionary journey. Later, during Paul's two prison terms in Rome, Mark helped him to continue his work. Mark's gospel is simple and direct. It challenges the reader to share in Jesus' sufferings. It is filled with details that help us to understand the human side of Jesus. Mark's symbol is a winged lion. The lion is a desert animal, and Mark's gospel begins with the story of John the Baptist in the desert. Traditions say that Mark went to Alexandria in Egypt. He worked there for ten years before he was martyred. The city of Venice in Italy has Mark for its patron saint. His bones are said to rest in the great cathedral there.

Our Knights of Columbus Council will hold their annual Diaper Drive to benefit local mothers in need.

Donations will be distributed to Alternatives Yes a local pro-life pregnancy support center that helps families through pregnancy and infancy. Help our Knights celebrate motherhood and the gift of life by bringing a pack of diapers to church in May. Any size diapers are welcome. We also welcome any packaged item for infants, such as socks, onesies, bottles, and wipes. Thank you for helping to support God's most precious gift, the Gift of Life. Baskets will be in the entrance of both churches beginning the weekend of April 29 - 30 and remain there the entire month of May for your donations.
