St. Pius X Festival Meeting

There will be a festival meeting on Wednesday, May 24th at 7:30pm in the St. Pius social hall for all those interested in helping with our upcoming festival. Hope to see you on the 24th.

Visitation Parish & St. Pius X Festival News

We're excited to say that Father Dan and his mother will once again offer the "Dinner for 8" on Friday, August 4th. The menu and tickets will be out soon!!

St. Pius X & Visitation Choir & Cantor Concert

this Sunday, May 21st
7:00pm St. Pius X Church
Don't miss this evening of wonderful music! All are invited!

Parish Clearance Event

No we aren't selling anything, but we are continuing to ask our volunteers to update their clearances. The diocese and the state require us to have child abuse clearances on file for anyone ministering in any way. This includes our festival volunteers. These clearances can be completed online, but you can also come on Friday, June 2 to Visitation Community Center from 7:30-9:30 AM where we will help walk you through the process. Thank you for helping us fulfill our requirements.

From the Desk of Fr. Dan

I think it's incredible that the Easter season is longer than Lent. Lent always feels longer because of the sacrifices we make during that time. But Lent is only 40 days – Easter is 50 days. This Sunday is the 43th day of the Easter season – the Sunday between the Ascension (40th day) and Pentecost (50th day). Does it really feel like Easter happened all that long ago? Not to me. But I'm guessing it did for the apostles. What a whirlwind they went through. Jesus entered triumphantly into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday and within a week was shockingly killed. Three days later, his body is no longer in the tomb and he's appearing to all sorts of people everywhere. Jesus' appearances are rarely predictable (only one appearance is "foretold" in Matthew 28:10) and the disciples never seem ready for it. The Scriptural post-Resurrection stories (Mark 16; Matthew 28; Luke 24; John 20 and 21; and Acts 1), are mostly marked by confusion, hesitancy, and doubt. Imagine 40 days of that. When is Jesus going to show up this week? What will he do?

Eventually, Jesus tells them that he's going home to his Father on the Ascension and then he disappears. No more appearing acts. But...now what? Well, we hear what they do in today's first reading. They wait for the Holy Spirit to come from God.

When they entered the city [the apostles] went to the upper room where they were staying...[and] devoted themselves with one accord to prayer, together with some women, and Mary the mother of Jesus and his brothers.

I think there is a lesson in this. We all go through moments of our life that are marked by confusion, hesitancy, and doubt. How do we respond in these moments? The best thing to do is to go into our upper room and devote ourselves to prayer. Often this is not what we want to do. We want to distract ourselves and not think about our problems. We flit from thing to thing, trying to forget about it. We might even resort to drugs, alcohol, sex, and other coping mechanisms that only prolong the suffering. The best way out of our messes is to go into the upper room, talk to God, and wait for the Holy Spirit. It might not happen right away. It took 50 long days after the Resurrection for the Holy Spirit to come. That's a long time to be troubled. Yet, by turning to God instead of away from Him, we prepare ourselves to be ready to receive the Holy Spirit and shorten the time of suffering.

During these days leading up to Pentecost the Church prays "Come, Holy Spirit." No matter what's going on in our lives, may we take time to go into that upper room and invite the Holy Spirit to come and transform our lives.

101.3% of Diocesan goal

Please Note:

I am pleased to announce that we have reached the Diocesan goal for our 2023 Diocesan Lenten Appeal in both of our parishes. At this point, all monies and pledges that come in will be for our parishes directly and exclusively!

I hope you have noticed some of the projects that have been completed over the past couple of years. These were made possible in part to your generosity to the previous Diocesan Lenten Appeals. This year, the main goal of the appeal is to continue to work on parish projects I thank all those who have participated to this point. We do need your help in making this a success. I would ask you to please make your gift by Sunday, June 18th. Thank you once again and may God bless you and your family. If you need a pledge card, please call the parish office. Please make your gift early and we truly appreciate your generosity.

You can pledge online at DioceseofGreensburg.org/OneBody. Thank you!

 Isabel Ann Overly, Sean Anthony Trimble,
 Grant Sebastian Zahrobsky

We know these young people will engage with the gifts of the Holy Spirit and live out their Baptismal call in the life of our parishes! Thank you to the Visitation and St. Pius X Christian Mothers who provided a beautiful reception. Our liturgy was enhanced by the beautiful music of our choir, who we are deeply grateful for!
Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And You shall renew the face of the earth.

Please pray for Frank Lackner and Jeff Landy who have been laid to rest recently. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest forever in the peace of the Lord.

In observance of Memorial Day, please join along with our Knights of Columbus as we pray a Patriotic Rosary immediately following the 10:30am Mass on Sunday, May 28th.

Cemetery News

I would ask that as you decorate your family and friends' graves, if you see any trash, old flowers or plastic arrangements that have been dislocated by the weather, that you please place them in the receptacles that are available or take them home and dispose of them. This would help very much in our upkeep and maintaining the atmosphere and cleanliness of our cemeteries. Please be advised that we cannot assume responsibility for artificial flowers stuck in the ground. When planting real flowers please clear a space in front of the gravestone so that a distinct boundary exists between flowers and grass. Just a reminder that No shrubs or small trees may be planted in our cemeteries. What seems "small and cute" now eventually turns into "overgrown and hard work" if left uncared for.

May is the month dedicated to Mary, Mother of God and our Spiritual Mother.

We turn to her often in our needs, as under the title of the Immaculate Conception, she is the patroness of these United States of America.

Prayer to Mary Immaculate

Blessed Mother Mary, we turn to you in prayer for all the people in these United States. We again place ourselves in your care, in the gentle hands that cradled the Child Jesus. We ask you to make us more alive in your faith, more generous in your love, more trusting in your hope. Teach us to imitate Jesus, as you did, and always to follow Him with your courage. Mother Mary, help us to become a people who hunger for justice and who burn with compassion for those who suffer in our midst. Make us a people who cherish and defend the dignity of every human person. Free us from all selfishness and self-interest, that we truly might be the builders of the Kingdom of God. Immaculate Mary, help us to stand among the family of nations as a people of vision and courage, who will gift this world with new life, new hope, and the unity for which your Son died. Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who turn with confidence to you today. Amen.

Music Ministry Gathering

All those involved in the St. Pius X and Visitation Churches Music Ministry, including the Choir, Cantors, Organists and instrumentalists are invited for an evening of food and fellowship on

Monday May 22nd @ 6pm
St. Pius X Social Hall.

Monday, May 29 is the Holiday of Memorial Day.

 We as Catholics believe that offering Mass for the intention of all our deceased, especially our veterans, is an excellent and noble way to remember them.

With this in mind, Mass will be offered on Monday, May 29 at 9am at Visitation Cemetery. You are reminded to bring your lawn chair if you wish to have a seat.

Please plan to begin your day by attending this mass and remembering all who have given their lives for the safety and freedom of our nation. There will be no other morning masses on this Memorial Day.

In observance of the Feast Day of the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary we will gather for Mass on Wednesday, May 31 at 6:00pm in Visitation Church. There will be no morning Mass on May 31. The rosary will be recited at 5pm at the Fatima Shrine located next to Visitation Church. In case of inclement weather the rosary will be held in Visitation Church.

A reception, hosted by the St. Pius X Christian Mothers, will be held in Visitation community center following Mass. All are invited!!!

Graduating Senior Mass

On Sunday, June 4th at the 10:30am Mass we will be celebrating and congratulating our graduating seniors. If anyone who is graduating either high school or college wishes to attend, please contact Linda by May 22nd at the parish office to RSVP.

The annual collection for the U.S. Bishops' Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) is being held in the Diocese of Greensburg this weekend, May 20-21. Half of the donations stay here in the diocese to support local projects, including The Catholic Accent and the diocesan website. The other half supports multimedia projects from the Catholic Communication Campaign, an initiative of the U.S. Bishops that promotes Gospel values through both new and traditional media. For examples of local projects, go to the diocesan website: www.dioceseofgreensburg.org. For more information about national projects, visit: www.usccb.org/nationalcollections.

Our Knights of Columbus Council will hold their annual Diaper Drive to benefit local mothers in need.

Donations will be distributed to Alternatives Yes a local pro-life pregnancy support center that helps families through pregnancy and infancy. Help our Knights celebrate motherhood and the gift of life by bringing a pack of diapers to church in May. Any size diapers are welcome. We also welcome any packaged item for infants, such as socks, onesies, bottles, and wipes. Thank you for helping to support God's most precious gift, the Gift of Life. Baskets will be in the entrance of both Churches and remain there the entire month of May for your donations.

Wear Your Red to celebrate Pentecost!

Next weekend, May 27-28 we celebrate Pentecost Sunday, the conclusion of our fifty days of Eastertide and time of "extra" Alleluias! We encourage everyone to wear red next weekend - to Mass and in public - as an outward sign of our belief that the Holy Spirit dwells within and works through us. Alleluia!!!

According to Church Law, Trinity Sunday, June 4, is the last Sunday that you can make your Easter duty.

The confession of sin cleanses us. Christ in communion is our strength. Please do not deprive yourself of such gifts of healing, strength and love. Just for clarification, the precept of the Church is as follows: To lead a sacramental life; to receive the Sacrament of Penance regularly and Holy Communion frequently - minimally, at least once a year, between the first Sunday of Lent and Trinity Sunday.

Do you know of someone who is interested in learning about the Catholic Church?

Are you drawn to the Catholic Church and would like to learn what Catholics believe? Are you someone who was baptized Catholic, but not fully initiated? (Did not receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.) Each of us is on a journey to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the setting for individuals to learn what it means to be a Catholic Christian. This is an opportunity for you to discover what Catholics believe and discern if you are called to this journey of faith. Individuals from the parish walk with you, sharing their faith and allowing you to question and explore what it means to live as a Catholic Christian. We gather to pray, to read Scripture, to explore topics of our faith tradition and to support one another in this journey. As a first step, there will be inquiry sessions through the summer months; we usually meet a couple of times a month. It is a time to ask questions or have discussions about introductory information concerning the Catholic faith. Then in early September, we normally meet on a weekly basis. At that time we begin a deeper and more intense exploration of the faith. If you would like to speak with someone about the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), please call the parish office (724-547-1911) to speak with Fr. Dan Carr or Cindy Copeland.

This Friday, May 26 is the Feast Day of St. Philip Neri, presbyter, religious founder (1515-1595)

As a young man Philip Neri came to Rome, where he went out to the squares, shops and banks. There he challenged the other young men he met, asking them when they meant to begin doing good. Many of them, rich and poor alike, soon joined him. They volunteered in the hospitals of the city to care for patients. They did the dirtiest jobs. In the afternoon, they met with Philip for prayer, song and study at a place called the Oratory. Philip was good at guiding those who wanted to grow in their prayer. Pilgrims who came to Rome to visit its holy places attended his teachings in such great numbers that a large room had to be built to hold them all. People in trouble felt calmed just by being in the same room with him. People came to him for spiritual direction. Some of them also became famous saints, including Ignatius of Loyola, Francis de Sales and Camillus de Lellis. Yet Philip never took himself seriously. He wore old clothes and once shaved off half his beard just because people were saying how saintly he looked. When the pope wanted to honor Philip by appointing him a cardinal, the pope hung a cardinal's hat on Philip's door. A cardinal's hat is flat, so Philip tossed it in the air like a frisbee. One of the people Philip guided, Francis de Sales, said that "a sad saint would be a sorry saint." Philip's joy was convincing to so many people that he would come to be called the second apostle to Rome. By the time he died at age 80, the whole city had been transformed by the spirit of the Oratory.
