Prayer of Mary

Almighty Father, through the obedience of your servant Mary, our Blessed Mother, the word became flesh. As you raised the sinless Virgin Mary to share in the splendor of your kingdom, may we, your humble children, be given your grace so that we may always live in your presence without sin. Amen.

From the Desk of Fr. Dan

When my partner and I were deciding to close our business in 2010, we called our customers to let them know. I remember one particular phone conversation with a customer who wasn't sure if he could trust a couple of 20-year-olds to support his business. Who could blame him? But eventually we earned his trust and did work for him for a long time. When we called to let him know that we were closing, he said something that really meant a lot. "Why are you closing? If it's money, I would invest in you. You have a really good thing going. Don't give up on it." Even though we didn't take him up on the offer, it meant a lot that he believed enough in us to offer to be our patron.

I'm not sure why Our Lady was chosen as patroness of Visitation parish when it was established in 1893. I'm not sure why this particular feast of Our Lady was chosen at that time. If you do, please share that with me. I do know that doing so had long-term consequences. Although all saints and angels care about all of humanity, they must have a special eye on those who have chosen to honor them by choosing them as patrons or patronesses. All those years ago, the Holy Spirit guided this community to seek a special connection with Our Lady of the Visitation. While this special connection is particularly true for parishioners of Visitation parish, it is also true of all Catholics in Mount Pleasant...and, in fact, all people in Mount Pleasant. She watches over not just our Church but our town.

On Wednesday, May 31, the Church celebrates the liturgical feast of the Visitation of our Lord. This is our patronal feast day for Visitation Parish. It is an important day to gather and to celebrate as a church community. It is a day to thank Our Lady for interceding to Her Son on our behalf and for her guidance and protection over the last 130 years. We will be having Mass at 6:00 PM that day with a reception to follow in the Community Center. I hope and pray that our Church will be filled on that day so we can give due honor to Our Lady and to her Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ.

According to Church Law, Trinity Sunday, June 4, is the last Sunday that you can make your Easter duty. The confession of sin cleanses us. Christ in communion is our strength. Please do not deprive yourself of such gifts of healing, strength and love.

Please Note:

I am pleased to announce that we have reached the Diocesan goal for our 2023 Diocesan Lenten Appeal in both of our parishes. At this point, all monies and pledges that come in will be for our parishes directly and exclusively!

I hope you have noticed some of the projects that have been completed over the past couple of years. These were made possible in part to your generosity to the previous Diocesan Lenten Appeals. This year, the main goal of the appeal is to continue to work on parish projects I thank all those who have participated to this point. We do need your help in making this a success. I would ask you to please make your gift by Sunday, June 18th. Thank you once again and may God bless you and your family. If you need a pledge card, please call the parish office. Please make your gift early and we truly appreciate your generosity.

You can pledge online at DioceseofGreensburg.org/OneBody. Thank you!

Monday, May 29, is the National Holiday of Memorial Day

In 1868, a national day was held to remember the dead of the Civil War and to pray for reconciliation. The idea had come from a Southern woman who visited battlefields in late spring to decorate the graves. Some people still call Memorial Day by its original name "Decoration Day." Memorial Day now honors all United States citizens who died in war. Every city and town has its war dead. Often they are remembered with a parade to a cemetery or war memorial. With bouquets strewn over the waters, coastal cities honor those who died at sea. Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, is the site of a Civil War battle where many thousand died. Today, school children in that town will decorate the tombs of soldiers who could not be identified after their deaths. A service will be held at the Vietnam War Memorial in Washington, D.C. We as Catholics, also believe that offering Mass for their intention is an excellent and noble way to remember them. With this in mind, a Mass will be offered at 9am at Visitation Cemetery on Monday, May 29. You are reminded to bring lawn chairs if you wish to have a seat. Please plan to begin your day by attending Mass and remembering all of our deceased loved ones, especially those who have given their lives for the safety of our nation. This Mass will be offered for all the deceased parishioners of the Churches of St. Pius X and Visitation, especially those who served in the Armed Forces.

We commend to your prayers in a special way those who have been laid to rest in our three parish cemeteries since Memorial Day 2022:

Recent Deaths

Please pray for Mary "Peggy" Rose, John Vrable, Susan Halvonik and James "Jimmy" Paul, Sr. who have died recently. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest forever in the peace of the Lord.

★★★★★ As we celebrate Memorial Day weekend, I would like to take

MEMORIAL DAY this time to thank certain groups of people who contribute greatly to the ministry of our parishes. I thank all the parishioners, especially those who are funeral cantors, servers and ministers, who make it a priority to be present for the funeral of a parishioner. These parishioners attend the funerals and participate in the liturgy. Their presence in singing and responding give great comfort to our families who are dealing with the death of a loved one. All these men and women perform the corporal and spiritual works of mercy in praying for the dead and burying the dead. On behalf of our entire parish families, I thank them and ask God's blessing on them and their families. Thank you again.

Today we celebrate Pentecost Sunday.

One of the biblical names for Pentecost is “the festival of first fruits.” A “first fruit” is the first of a crop to ripen. These were offered to God in thanksgiving for the harvest. We usually don’t think of this time of year as a harvest season. But in mild climates, such as the lands around the Mediterranean, the apricots, cherries and strawberries are ripe now. So are wheat and other grains. The grain harvest is the principle harvest of the year, the crop that can feed people all year long if it is abundant enough. Even in the north, gardens yield asparagus, rhubarb, the first peas and spinach and other salad greens. Winter’s fast has become springtime’s feast. In the First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul uses the imagery of Pentecost to speak of the resurrection of Jesus: “Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. All will be made alive in Christ, but each in proper order: First Christ, then all those who belong to Christ.” Christians celebrate Pentecost 50 days after Easter Sunday. Pentecost is a Greek word that means either “50 days” or “50th day.” Pentecost sets a seal on the 50 days of Eastertime. It is a grand finale. On Pentecost, Christians celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The gospels speak often of the coming of the Spirit. John’s gospel tells us that, when Jesus died, “He bowed his Head and gave up His spirit.” John tells us that the risen Christ breathed on the disciples and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit.” In the Acts of the Apostles we hear today of a great outpouring of the Spirit, who descended in fire and wind on the disciples, just as God appeared to Moses on Mount Sinai. At Jesus’ baptism, the Holy Spirit appeared in the form of a dove that descended on Jesus. In Luke’s gospel, we hear over and over that Jesus was filled with the power of the Spirit. In the Acts of Apostles, the descent of the Spirit happens over and over to the disciples. Pentecost is made new again at every baptism, every Eucharist, every time two or more gather in Jesus’ name.

Hello

JUNE

The sixth month is named after Juno, the Roman goddess of hearth and home. Juno’s month was lucky for weddings. In years past among Christians, weddings were rarely held during the paschal seasons of Lent, the Triduum and Eastertime, which ends on Pentecost. After Pentecost the time of summer weddings began. In the Northern Hemisphere, June is the month of the summer solstice. The church keeps many solemnities this month. Perhaps the reason is the good weather, because June is often the best month of the year for outdoor processions, street fairs and other festivities.

This Wednesday is the Feast Day of The Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Our mission on earth is to bear Christ to others. The first chapter of the gospel of Luke describes a missionary journey. Mary, pregnant with Jesus, visits her cousin Elizabeth, who is pregnant with John the Baptist. Mary has just learned amazing news. Angel Gabriel has told her that she will bear a child by the power of the Holy Spirit. This child will be called the Son of God. The angel has said that Elizabeth also is pregnant. This is wonderful, because Elizabeth and her husband Zechariah are an elderly couple who have wanted a child all their lives. Luke says that, in response to this news, Mary sets out “with haste.” Elizabeth and Zechariah live a distance away. Mary chooses to make this journey because she is concerned for her cousin. She also wants to share her joy with someone who will understand. Her own pregnancy is still a secret. Elizabeth greets her cousin with words that will be repeated by generations of Christians at prayer: “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.” In paintings of the Visit of Mary and Elizabeth, the two women are shown embracing. Elizabeth in her old age, and Mary in all her youthfulness, together hold fast to each other. Mary sings a song that begins with the words, “My soul magnifies the Lord...” This song weaves together the words of the prophets to proclaim God’s goodness and care for the poor. Magnificat is the first word of this song in Latin. The visit of the cousins is also the first meeting of their unborn children. Elizabeth tells Mary that, at the sound of her voice, “the child within my womb leaped for joy.” Luke reminds us of the words of the Bible’s Song of Songs, “The voice of my beloved! Look, he comes, leaping upon the mountains, bounding over the hills.” We celebrated the Annunciation in March. Now it is the end of May. In the Song of Songs we read, “The winter is past. The rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come.” Soon John will be born, and spring will have passed over into summer.

We wish all of our parishioners of Visitation parish a blessed and wonderful day on their parish feast day. Z’BOHOM

We will gather for Mass on Wednesday, May 31 at 6:00pm in Visitation Church, there will be no morning Mass. The rosary will be recited at 5pm at the Fatima Shrine located next to Visitation Church. In case of inclement weather the rosary will be held in Visitation Church. A reception, hosted by the St. Pius X Christian Mothers, will be held in Visitation community center following Mass.
