Visitation Parish Festival Update

This past June 11th, Visitation parish held its annual summer festival on the parish grounds. It was a great day and time for us to celebrate our Slovak heritage with food, music, games and each other and friends. We have just finished settling all the receipts and adding all the numbers. We brought in a total of $52,143.06 in receipts and our expenses totaled 11,252.84. This gives Visitation Parish a profit of $40,890.22. I thank our chairperson Barb and the entire committee and all the workers and helpers for this accomplishment. Thank you and God Bless you.

Fr. Paul

From the Desk of Fr. Dan

Lord, I love your commands.

Our responsorial psalm this week can be a difficult one to pray. We live in a society where freedom of choice is emphasized – probably over-emphasized. Any restrictions on our freedom can seem unhelpful or even wrong. So, we don't like commandments and laws. We don't like someone telling us what we can and cannot do. So, we push back against the Church's teachings, especially those with which we disagree.

I think most of us know the importance of laws and commandments. They hold society together and give us healthy expectations of how we are to live together. So, most of us try to follow the rules and obey the commandments. However, we often do so begrudgingly. It's one thing to obey commandments. It's another thing entirely to love them. Yet, that is what we are praying in this psalm. How can we love God's commands when they can be so difficult, so unreasonable?

To answer this question, I think it's helpful to imagine yourself sitting with our Founding Fathers as they set out to establish our US Constitution. They were setting out to establish a set of rules and laws on which a country's foundation would be laid. Think about how intimidating that prospect would be. Any legal system depends on its fairness and consistency. All the laws must fit together in harmony. So, where would they begin? How would the laws they make fit together? What happens when there are conflicts between two laws? What if they put the system into place and it doesn't work? Fortunately, they did not start with nothing. They had other governments to use as an example. Far more importantly, they had God's law to use as a model. John Adams, our second President of the United States, once wrote:

"Suppose a nation in some distant region should take the Bible for their only law book, and every member should regulate his conduct by the precepts there exhibited!...What a eutopia, what a paradise would this region be."

This is why we should love God's commandments and the teachings of the Church. They are the only commands that are truly just and truly consistent. They lead us to true happiness and fulfillment. They are the laws and commands that will govern us in heaven. Every time we seek to throw them off, we will only be led down a path of destruction. The sooner we can follow His commands, the sooner we'll be ready to live with Him in paradise. This is why we love His commands, even when they are difficult. We may not always like them, but we do love them, because the One who shares them with us loves us even more.

Parish News and Information from the Administrator

I would like to inform our parishes of some staffing changes that will occur in our parish office. Linda Amdy, our parish secretary, has decided to retire from her position. Linda has been a fixture in our offices for 20 years. The past few years that I have had the pleasure to work with her as your administrator, she has been a blessing and a confidant. She has managed the office stupendously, while greeting everyone with grace and patience. She is listed as the parish secretary, but she is much more and perfect at it. I thank Linda for listening and always giving great advice and supporting me. I thank Linda for all that was entrusted to her and she handled all of it with excellence and took a burden off of my shoulders as I am sure she did for the other pastors she served. Linda's last day on the job will be Thursday, August 31st. In the meantime, please extend to Linda a thank you and God bless over the next few weeks. As we say good-bye to Linda, I have hired Erin Knizner as our Administrative Assistant. Erin has been working the office since January as the office assistant. Erin is from Connellsville and a member of St. John's Church. She is spending the next few weeks working with Linda. Please make her feel welcomed in this new position for both of our parishes, Her first day in her new position will be Tuesday, September 5th. Thank you for your attention to this information.

Fr. Paul

What is a Sponsor Certificate and how is one obtained?

A sponsor certificate verifies that a person belongs to a particular parish and attends Sunday Mass regularly there. The certificate also verifies that someone fulfills all the Church requirements to be a sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation, including age, the completion of the Sacraments of Initiation, and if married, being in a valid marriage. A sponsor certificate can be obtained by calling the parish office. When a person is asked to be a sponsor, sometimes he or she is not sure of this role or the Church's expectations. This becomes an opportunity for us to learn once again the meaning behind some of the Church's practices. Those who are choosing sponsors are advised to choose carefully.

A St. Pius X Festival Thank You

The crowds entered St. Pius X's parish grounds last Sunday for a spectacular day and evening of fun, food and fellowship that are definitely a trait of our hospitality and happiness. I thank everyone who prayed for good weather and had their prayers answered with some bright sun, a gentle breeze at times and not too high humidity. We thank all those who played the games, transferred and placed all those the items needed, helped set up and tear down, made the grounds so presentable, staffed booths and tents, and anyone who prepared and cooked food or worked in the kitchen. We are famous for our food here at St. Pius and once again there was nothing but raves about all our menu items. We thank in a special way, all of our committee chairpersons for the time they spent on the phone contacting workers, ordering supplies, and all the other efforts to help the festival run smoothly. Our chairman, Eric Harris, did so much behind the scenes that may not be seen but is appreciated wholeheartedly. All the monetary figures are not calculated yet, but we will share them with you when they are available. Thank you once again for helping to throw such a great party for our parish and beyond. Also, a thank you to God for all his blessings bestowed on our parish last Sunday and always! Our parish families pray and play well together.

Fr. Paul

Family Prayer at Mealtime

Usually before and after meals, we say Grace. The prayer is said quickly, if we even remember to say it. Mealtime, however, is a good time for a family to pray together. Why not make use of this special time? Why not spend a moment or two in silence before Grace is said? The time can be used to put ourselves in God's presence, the Host of every home. Or can we think of a few good thoughts of our family? The Grace will be more powerful; it will carry all our needs and thanks in the few words it's saying. So at least once in a while, Grace can be a little longer. A short reading from Scripture, some silence, then the Grace itself. Have a different member choose the reading and say the Grace each time. Or work out a type of mealtime prayer for your family. A day goes by so quickly with all the claims on our time. Mealtime should be a time for the family together - to enjoy in peace the unity which by blood and marriage God seeks in each family.

Just a Reminder to Parents of our Second Graders

- This coming school year will be the time that your child will be receiving the sacraments of Reconciliation and First Eucharist. The first step in the process is registering your child for religious education classes, (if they do not attend Catholic school). If you wish for your child to make these sacraments, these classes are mandatory. Registration forms will soon be available.

To Life and Hope

"...Hope Does Not Disappoint..."

Romans 5

Good and Gracious God, we ask you to send forth your grace so that we might help people affected by addiction and the opioid epidemic. We pray that addicts will not fear seeking help and that their loved ones will never give up. We pray for all people who help the addicted and we pray for everyone who has lost loved ones. May we respond as the Church, proclaiming the Good News, filled with hope and gladness.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

St. Maximilian Kolbe,
Patron Saint of Drug Addicts

Greeting

I salute you. I am your friend and my love for you goes deep. There is nothing I can give you which you have not got; but there is much, very much, that, while I cannot give it, you can take. No heaven can come to us unless our hearts find rest in today. Take heaven! No peace lies in the future which is not hidden in this present little instant. Take peace! The gloom of the world is but a shadow. Behind it, yet within our reach, is joy. There is radiance and glory in the darkness, could we but see, and to see we have only to look. I beseech you to look. Life is so generous a giver, but we judging its gifts by their covering, cast them away as ugly or heavy or hard. Remove the covering and you will find beneath it a living splendor, woven of love, by wisdom, with power. Welcome it, grasp it, and you touch the angel's hand that brings it to you. Everything we call a trial, a sorrow, or a duty, believe me, that angel's hand is there; the gift is there, and the wonder of an over-shadowing Presence. Our joys, too: be not content with them as joys. They, too, conceal diviner gifts. Life is so full of meaning and purpose, so full of beauty, beneath its covering, that you will find earth but cloaks your heaven. Courage then to claim it: that is all! But courage you have, and the knowledge that we are pilgrims together, winding through an unknown country home. And so, at this time, I greet you. Not quite as the world sends greetings, but with profound esteem and with the prayer that for you, now and forever, that day breaks and the shadows flee away.

From a letter written by Fr. Giovanni, 1513 A.D.

The Knights of Columbus will pray the Rosary at 9:45am, on Sunday, August 20th at St. Pius X Church. Please join us in prayer!

Hello, I'm Your Envelope Reminder Angel...

I've been assigned to watch over you for the summer and for vacations. While you are enjoying vacation, alone or with family and friends, don't forget your Church here at home. Your help will still be needed to meet current expenses. May I suggest you keep your unused envelopes and bring your contributions up to date when you return. God bless you and your family all year long.

Do you know of someone who is interested in learning about the Catholic Church?

Are you drawn to the Catholic Church and would like to learn what Catholics believe? Are you someone who was baptized Catholic, but not fully initiated? (Did not receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.)

Each of us is on a journey to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the setting for individuals to learn what it means to be a Catholic Christian. This is an opportunity for you to discover what Catholics believe and discern if you are called to this journey of faith. Individuals from the parish walk with you, sharing their faith and allowing you to question and explore what it means to live as a Catholic Christian. We gather to pray, to read Scripture, to explore topics of our faith tradition and to support one another in this journey.

As a first step, there will be an informal gathering on Wednesday, August 2nd in St. Pius' school at 7 pm. (We will meet on the lower level in the room off the social hall.) This inquiry session will give you the opportunity to have an initial conversation with Fr. Dan and Cindy Copeland about your interest in and your questions about the Catholic Church.

If you know of someone who is interested in learning about our faith, please share this invitation with them to "Come and See." If unable to attend on August 2nd, individuals may inquire about RCIA by calling the parish office (724-547-1911) to speak with Fr. Dan Carr or Cindy Copeland.

Carrying the Gifts

One of the beautiful customs we have at our parishes is that the family of the person/persons for whom the particular weekend Mass is being offered may honor the memory of them by carrying the offertory gifts of bread and wine along with the free-will offering of our parishioners to the altar. This is an honor because it represents our parish family presenting to God the gifts necessary for not only the family celebration of the liturgy but the ongoing work of our parish family. Upon arriving for Mass, those wishing to accept this opportunity should notify the sacristan or ushers who are at the entrance of the church. If they are not notified before Mass, they are not sure if any of the family or friends are present. Please help us in this matter.

Prayer for Eucharistic Revival

Lord Jesus, You are the living bread who satisfies the hunger of the human heart. In the Eucharist, the bread and wine become Your Body and Blood, the gift of Yourself to the Church. Deepen our faith in Your Eucharistic presence and strengthen us as members of the Church, the Body of Christ. As we encounter and revere Your Eucharistic presence, open us to the needs of our brothers and sisters here and everywhere throughout the world. Help us to reveal Your love, Your promise, Your presence to them by our lives and in all we say and do. Amen.

In observance of the Feast Day of Saint Pius X, we will gather for Mass on Monday August 21st at 6:00pm in St. Pius X Church. There will be no morning Mass on August 21st. A reception, hosted by the Visitation Christian Mothers, will be held in St. Pius social hall following Mass. All are invited!!!
