I have a lot of education. I like to tell elementary school children that I finished 23rd grade - just to see their faces. After 12 years of primary and secondary school, I spent 4 years studying math, computer science, and economics. Then I spent 2 years studying college courses in philosophy, 3 years studying theology, and 2 years studying marriage and family theology. Added up, that's 23rd grade.

It sounds particularly impressive. I know that I have a lot of knowledge in my brain and I do enjoy sharing that knowledge with others. But I've found that the more I know, the more I realize I don't know and the more I need to be willing to listen to others. You've probably heard the saying, "It's not about what you know. It's about who you know." Normally we apply this to getting a job or promotion, but it is also true in the Christian life. You can spend many, many years learning about God. You can know the Bible inside and out. You can study theology to your heart's content. But that is not what will save you. Relationship with God and faith in Jesus Christ is what does that.

In our Gospel this week, Jesus says to His Father: "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned, you have revealed them to little ones." I know more about the faith than my grandmother did when she died. But she was far more faithful than I will ever be. Just because I am learned does not mean that I have a stronger relationship with God. This means that my conversations with people are never one-sided. I am not simply trying to tell you what I know and how much I know. I do share my knowledge because people tell me that they find it helpful and it helps to deepen their faith. But I cannot pretend that I do not learn from all of you about God as well. My interactions with you increase my faith and love of God. Jesus gives His Father praise in this because it means that we all must listen to and learn from each other. We need to be willing to hear His voice in the voices of our brothers and sisters, no matter how little they are.

God has shared things with you that perhaps he has hidden from me and from others. You may want to share them but feel that you can't. Perhaps you will never be able to put your finger on what exactly you think or feel. You may never be able to even put those things into words. Don't worry about that. By your presence at worship and by your prayerful witness, you do already share them with me and with our community.

Diocese Missionary Cooperation Plan, July 15-16

Next Sunday as part of the Diocese Missionary Cooperation Plan, Reverend Lazarus Langbiir, CSSp, will visit Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Saint Pius X Parishes, to speak about the missionary work of the Church and in particular that of the Spiritans (officially Congregation of the Holy Spirit). To learn more about the Spiritans, please visit their website at www.spiritans.org. This visit is part of a national program in which annually a representative of one of the missionary groups visits parishes of the Diocese to invite parishioners to share in the mission work of the universal Church. The Spiritans are an international community engaged in a wide range of missionary activity in over 60 countries throughout the world. Next weekend's missionary, Fr. Lazarus, is from Ghana. He is studying at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, PA. When Jesus said: "You shall witness to me in Jerusalem and in Samaria and to the ends of the earth", He made the spread of the Gospel an essential part of our Catholic life. If you are able, please place your donation in the second collection basket and use the green envelope which is attached to this bulletin.

From the Desk of Fr. Paul

When I was young, I could never understand why the family car was not the top-of-the-line model.

When that car finally needed to be replaced, it was with a similar low-on-the-line model. Again, I couldn't understand. It wasn't until I was older that I finally came to the understanding my parents were saving money so that my sister and I could have special things, like a Catholic School education. That knowledge explained a lot of things that had been a mystery to me previously. That scenario is often repeated in our lives. We often have misconceptions about why people do what they do, or why they are the way they are. We forget a grouchy person may be ill; that a "loner" many never have known love in his or her life; that a frightened person may never have had the security and comfort of a loving family. We often see behavior in others that we cannot understand because we don't know the reasons behind it. Because of this, we should not judge. All we can do is offer our love, and if there is any need of change in our self or another, such love may be the needed catalyst for that change for the better.

Cemetery News

Cemetery envelopes are included in your envelope packets entitled ‘Cemetery Care.’ This offering enables us to maintain our three parish cemeteries and to increase our permanent perpetual care fund. We are planning to do some work in our cemeteries this year along with the standard mowing and up keeping of the cemeteries. Please help us to continue to preserve the resting places of our deceased families and parishioners. Please share in these envelopes in memorial to those who have gone before us. May all who have died in Christ, rest in Him!

What is a votive candle?

The act of lighting a candle when offering a special prayer has long been a cherished tradition. And, as a way to help advance the works of the Church and to offer a sacrifice to Christ, it has become customary to give an offering for the candle. Thus, the term votive candle. The word votive comes from the Latin verb voveo, meaning I desire. It signifies an offering in which a gift is lined with a prayer intention as a sacrificial dedication of oneself to God, submission to His will, and reliance on His mercy and providence. Essentially, a votive candle is a sentinel that we leave burning heavenward at a sacred place as a visual sight of our prayer of thanks or request. We are fortunate votive candles are available at each church. The donation is $3 each.

This Friday, July 14 is the Feast Day of Saint Kateri Tekakwitha

A Mohawk maiden walked in the forests and glens of America a century before there was a United States, and today she is known and revered throughout the world.

She was a true child of the continental wilderness that was forged into a mighty nation, and she was also chosen to experience union in prayer and contemplation with Christ. This Mohawk maiden demonstrates the Divine Presence in humans lives in a remarkable and historic manner, but she also serves as a bridge between the Catholic faith and the modern Native Americans of this continent. Her name at birth was Tekakwitha, and she received the name Kateri or Catherine when she was received into the Church. She is also called the Lily of the Mohawks, the Mohawk Maiden, the Pure and Tender Lily, and the Fairest Flower among True Men. Tekakwitha Circles, prayer groups, have been formed throughout the United States in her honor, and the Native Americans have rejoiced in her life because she embodies the best of Indian culture and traditions.

Matters of Sexual Misconduct Information

If you have any suspicion about the sexual abuse (or any other type of abuse) of a minor child by anyone - please contact PA Childline immediately at 1-800-932-0313. If the alleged abuser is functioning in a parish, school or diocesan position as clergy, religious, paid staff or volunteer you are also requested to contact the Bishop's Delegate for Matters of Sexual Misconduct after you have called the Childline number and made the report. The Bishop's Delegate may be reached at 724-837-0901, Ext. 1221.

Paulist Press, a component of the work of the Paulist Fathers, is having a bargain sale on many of its books.

The sale ends July 31st. We wanted to provide an opportunity for parishioners to purchase books at reduced prices. Some of the categories that you will find are the Bible, Spirituality, Faith, Liturgy and Worship, and books for Children. In order for you to make a decision about a book, we have a small selection of books for review at both churches. You will have an opportunity to scan the book and if interested, indicate your interest in purchasing. We will collect all the orders and submit to Paulist Press for purchase. (Please be aware that there are a limited number of the books available) Once the book comes in, you may pay for the book (checks made out to the parish). Most of the books are around $5.00. Original costs run from $9-$22. If you would like to view all the books that are on sale, please visit the Paulist Press site:

This Tuesday, July 11, is the Feast of Saint Benedict - Abbot, Religious Founder (c. 480-550)

In some ways, the Sixth Century was a lot like the 21st.
People were afraid of strangers.

The rich didn't speak to the poor. People within the same social class competed with one another for status by showing off their wealth and possessions. Benedict taught people a way to use prayer and Christlike attitudes to get over their fear and mistrust of each other.

Benedict was born to a noble family of Northern Italy. The Roman Empire was breaking apart. Invading tribes from beyond its borders had been taking over the land and looting cities. Many people lived with no thought of the future.

In those years, people who wanted to be close to God often gave up on society altogether. They would find an isolated place and spend the rest of their lives there. So for several years, Benedict became a hermit. He lived in a cave on a high cliff that was almost impossible to get to. Over time people heard about Benedict and many came to join him. Around the year 530, Benedict founded a Monastery called Monte Cassino. Everyone in the community lived under one roof. To help him, Benedict wrote a common sense guide called the Rule of Life. It divided the day into times of prayer, study, work and rest. St. Scholastica (February 11), Benedict's sister, settled nearby and formed the first community of women, to use Benedict's rule. In these communities, everyone worked and no one kept personal possessions. This helped to prevent envy and pride. Benedict encouraged a spirit of generous forgiveness. This generosity was extended to strangers and the needy. Every visitor to the abbey was treated like Christ. No one was ever turned away. Hospitality is still a trademark of Benedictine communities around the world. Benedict spent his life leading his monks, counseling visitors to the abbey and caring for the sick who lived nearby. When he died he was buried with Scholastica at Monte Cassino.
Benedictine monks and nuns would later be given credit for preserving European civilization during the Middle Ages. Benedict was named patron saint of Europe.

We congratulate the Benedictine community at St Vincent in Latrobe on the feast of their founder.
We also thank them for the service to our diocese, parishes, and seminarians over the years.

Do you know of someone who is interested in learning about the Catholic Church?

Are you drawn to the Catholic Church and would like to learn what Catholics believe? Are you someone who was baptized Catholic, but not fully initiated? (Did not receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.) Each of us is on a journey to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the setting for individuals to learn what it means to be a Catholic Christian. This is an opportunity for you to discover what Catholics believe and discern if you are called to this journey of faith. Individuals from the parish walk with you, sharing their faith and allowing you to question and explore what it means to live as a Catholic Christian. We gather to pray, to read Scripture, to explore topics of our faith tradition and to support one another in this journey. As a first step, there will be inquiry sessions through the summer months; we usually meet a couple of times a month. It is a time to ask questions or have discussions about introductory information concerning the Catholic faith. Then in early September, we normally meet on a weekly basis. At that time we begin a deeper and more intense exploration of the faith.
If you would like to speak with someone about the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), please call the parish office (724-547-1911) to speak with Fr. Dan Carr or Cindy Copeland.

Attention: Parents of children entering Kindergarten... If your child will be entering Kindergarten this fall, please let us know by contacting the parish office either by calling or e-mailing Linda to update your parish census information. This information is needed to ensure your family receives Faith Formation mailings and sacramental letters. Thank you for your cooperation.
