Fr. Paul

From the Desk of Fr. Dan

A little while ago I received an anonymous letter from a “Concerned Older Parishioner” that included the following question:

The older a person becomes the more the thought process becomes difficult to fathom.... Why do thoughts of wonderment develop? Is it because of indoctrination of religion?

In 2004, geneticist Dean Hamer wrote a book called The God Gene: How Faith is Hardwired into our Genes. This would suggest that our faithfulness is at least in part a genetic behavior and we might be predisposed toward certain kinds of religious experiences depending on our genes.

Before I give my own thoughts, I’ll give you the Catholic answer first (which is connected to my thoughts). built us to be like Him – capable of higher thinking, experiences of wonder, and of making choices freely. The Catechism tells us that, outside of our religious upbringing, we can come to know God both by looking out at the world around us and by looking within at the depth of the human person. If you look at the history of peoples, everyone has believed in a higher power. All of this seems to suggest that we carry “religion” in our hearts, even if it’s not around us. For us as Catholics, we know that this comes from a good, loving God.

As for my own thoughts, I have seen many people come to believe in God for a variety of reasons. Some found God with their mind and intellect; others through a powerful experience; still others from a profound relationship. What happens to us are often called “religious experiences” or “God moments” – when something happens, we can’t put our finger on but mean something big. Yet in these moments, some people have not found God. How can one person go through something and come away with a sense of God while another finds nothing?

There’s no easy answer for that. To me, explaining it away with the God Gene or indoctrination misses the point. In the end, there is no getting around what Pope Benedict XVI called the “terrible perhaps” of being human. We cannot know for certain. We all have what are called “religious experiences”. Are they authentic or not? Is there someone behind them or not? Do I believe because my parents made me? These are questions to which we can never truly have the answers. We must choose to believe or not.

The good news is that our Catholic faith is a strong faith. It is a reasonable faith – it is not blind to deep intellectual thought. It has stood the test of time. And many have been willing to lose their lives for it. That’s a faith in which I’m willing to believe.

Congratulations to Mason Robert Hisker, son of Thomas & Katie Crawford Hisker, who received the Sacrament of Baptism on Saturday, August 19th at Visitation Church.
May God bless him.

BACK TO SCHOOL

© J. S. Palack Co., Inc.

School Bells are Ringing!

Once again summer is winding down, which signals that it is time for schools to open their doors. As our youth go off to college, high school, grade school, kindergarten or even pre-school, we want to wish them well. Hopefully summer has been relaxing and refreshing, and they are ready to begin the education that will be important in their lives. We know that they have new clothes, backpacks and lunchboxes, notebooks and pens, fridges and debit cards, but may they remember that the most important thing to take with them is an open mind, so that it may become filled by every class and subject. Be assured of our continued prayers for a good year, and may God bless you throughout the 2023-2024 school year.

School is open. Please drive with care!

Let’s remind ourselves that our children are now waiting alongside our roadways to be picked up for classes, or being dropped off at the end of the school day. They do not always exercise caution as they should while at the bus stop. It is our responsibility as adults to be extra careful and responsible at all times.

Back to School Prayer

Father of all mercies, we ask that you would bless the youngest and littlest of learners, the most helpless and powerless of persons, with Your infinite and loving mercy, granting them the strength to learn, concentrate and act appropriately towards their teachers and fellow students. We ask that You would watch over them, at home and at school, and grant them proper direction so that they may learn of Your wonderful virtues. We ask this in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Let us pray for the students, parents, instructors, and all involved in our young people’s education be it elementary, high school or college - that they always be open to the Holy Spirit.

Word Among Us

Daily Meditations for Catholics

You may notice in the back of our Churches, a new Catholic periodical entitled the Word Among Us. This little magazine has daily meditations for Catholics. It is published on a monthly basis and contains Catholic Mass readings. These are furnished on a trial basis, free of charge, to see if there is an interest in this booklet. You can always make a free will offering if you would like. I hope this periodical will help you spend some time with our Lord. They are available beginning this weekend in the back of both churches.

This Tuesday, August 29 is the Feast of the Martyrdom of St. John the Baptist

Herod Antipas was a weak and immoral king who had married Herodias, the wife of his own brother. John the Baptist was a prophet and a person of integrity, so he spoke out against this wrong. Herod was awed and puzzled by John, but Herodias was furious. John was a threat to her power. She had Herod thrown him in prison. At Herod's birthday celebration, Herodias saw her chance to get John out of the way for good. Her young daughter Salome danced at the party, and Herod was so delighted that he foolishly promised her anything she wished as a reward, even half his kingdom. The daughter consulted her mother - and then she asked for the head of John the Baptist on a platter!

Herod had been outsmarted. He was afraid to kill John but saw no way out. So, for the sake of a dance at a birthday party, the great prophet John was murdered. (This story is told in the sixth chapter of the Gospel of Mark and the eleventh chapter of the Gospel of Matthew.) Some of John's disciples buried his body at Sebaste, a town some miles from Jerusalem.

Unlike the luxury-loving king who had him killed, John owned nothing. He ate only the simplest food and wore the skins of wild animals he caught in the desert. His one concern was to do the will of God. He devoted his time to prayer and the service of others. When people thought that he might be the Messiah, he quickly explained to them that one greater than he was coming. And when Jesus began his public ministry, John quietly stepped aside. "He must increase," John said of Jesus, "but I must decrease." John's mission from the time he was born had been to prepare the way for the Lord. He had done so all his life, calling people to repent of their sins and to await the good news. Now he led the way in death as well - his martyrdom showed what lay ahead for Jesus. No wonder Jesus praised John as "a burning and shining lamp!"

We celebrate St. John the Baptist on June 24, the solemnity of his birth. Today we mourn for him. In the Eastern Church, today is a strict fast day, like Good Friday.

Parish Picnic Planning Meeting

Those who would like to help in the planning of our parish picnic are asked to attend a meeting on Wednesday, August 30th at 7pm in Visitation community center.

The Visitation Christian Mothers invite any/all ladies, young and/or older, of the parish to join their membership on Thursday, September 28th at 6pm; a

rosary will begin at 5:30pm in the church. (Note: This date has been changed from the 21st to the 28th due to Glass Festival schedule conflicts.) Christian Mothers

Organizations began in Lille, France in 1850. The cultural challenges at that time, prompted ladies to gather to pray with and for one another and their children, to discuss their problems, and to advise one another under the patronage of Our Lady of Sorrows. Presently, there are six Archconfraternity of Christian Mothers in the world. They are located in Paris, Rome, Regensburg (Ratisbon), Cracow, Einsiedeln, and Pittsburgh. The society founded its way to America on January 16, 1881 at St. Augustine's Church, now known as Our Lady of the Angels Parish, 220-37th St., Pittsburgh, PA. Our local parish membership meets the 3rd Thursday of the month in April, May, September-December. We share prayer, fellowship and support to our parish. If interested in becoming a member please call Jan Brooks at 724-547-5356 by Monday, September 25th. To our Current Members: This September meeting is our Annual Covered Dish. (I'm always amazed at the variety of foods displayed! It is a beautiful sight!) Please remember to add your name to your dish, so we can share recipes. Following the 5:30pm rosary, we will induct any new members, and then proceed to the community center.

Thanks in Advance, Jan.

Individuals may inquire about RCIA by calling the parish office (724-547-1911) to speak with Fr. Dan Carr or Cindy Copeland.

The recent "Clothing Sale" held by the Visitation Christian Mothers was a huge success!

The profit gained exceeded last year's amount by over a thousand dollars! The final deposit from the sale was $2,829.44. This success is due to the many clothing donations from our fellow parishioners and community members. Our members are in awe at the support shown to them; so much so, they are thinking of extending the hours of the sale. It seems as if each year we receive more and more donations. We are grateful and appreciative to all! Also, I need to extend a heartfelt thanks to all of my fellow members and friends that helped with the organization of the sale and the "tear down." The amount of help received makes our sale very prosperous. A special thanks to Paul Baird who delivered the remaining Men's Clothing to "Union Mission" in Latrobe, and Joe Bauer who arranged for St. Vincent De-Paul to collect the clothing that wasn't sold. Finally, a special thanks to Brendan Baird who has helped us clean our community center for many years. Brendan does impeccable work. Thanks to all, Sincerely Jan.
