The eighth month is named after Augustus Caesar, who was emperor at the time of the birth of Jesus.

Augustus was the first Roman emperor. In the Northern Hemisphere, this month marks the fullness of summer. The worship of the church during August reflects summer's abundance in celebrating the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord and the solemnity of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary into Heaven.

From the Desk of
Fr. Dan

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty.

The world is full of shysters and charlatans. Many people make up a story to get something from people. Whether it's money, fame, attention, or whatever else, we always need to be on the lookout for someone who is fake.

It was no different in Jesus' day. Wandering prophets and itinerant preachers were common in those days. Many rolled into town bringing some sort of message about a miraculous event that had occurred and preaching a new way of life. These men would then stay and receive the hospitality of the town – food, drink, living quarters – while sharing their message. Then, when people got tired of them, they would move onto the next town.

Many people thought that St. Paul, St. Peter, and the early Christians were much the same. They came in proclaiming something difficult to believe – a man had risen from the dead and the people should repent and be baptized. Just another charlatan, right?

The apostles take offense to this in their letters. They did not act like charlatans. First, St. Paul writes that he did not impose himself on the people to take their money or food. In his letters to the Thessalonians, he reminded them that he worked for a living while he was with them. Working night and day in order not to burden any of you, we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. (1 Thess 2:9) For we did not act in a disorderly way among you, nor did we eat food received free from anyone. On the contrary, in toil and drudgery, night and day we worked. (2 Thess 3:7-8) This testifies to his authenticity.

Second, they defend their story against falsehood. In our passage from our second reading this week from the second letter of Peter, Christians did not create “cleverly devised myths” but shared eyewitness testimony – what he himself saw and heard. St. Peter is relying on their memories of his message – something we don't have. However, modern literary techniques can help us verify the authenticity of the Christian message, especially in the eyewitness accounts in the book of Acts. By all accounts, the Christian eyewitness seems to be truthful and not a fictional account.

Perhaps the best witness to their sincerity is how their lives ended. When a charlatan senses that people don't believe him, he changes his story or flees town. That's not what St. Peter, St. Paul, and the early Christians did. When things got dicey, they stood their ground and refused to change their story. They lost their lives for their message. That's why we can believe their testimony to this day. As hard as it is to believe that the Son of God died on a cross and rose from the dead, we can trust the eyewitnesses who lost their own lives to share the Good News of salvation with the world

Reminder!

Just a Reminder to Parents of Our Second Graders

This coming school year will be the time your child will be preparing for the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist. The first step in the process is ensuring your child is receiving regular religious education. Your 2nd grader should be in a Catholic school or parish program.

Hello, I'm Your Envelope Reminder Angel...

I've been assigned to watch over you for the summer and for vacations. While you are enjoying vacation, alone or with family and friends, don't forget your Church here at home. Your help will still be needed to meet current expenses. May I suggest you keep your unused envelopes and bring your contributions up to date when you return. God bless you and your family all year long.

DLA UPDATE

It's not too late to make your DLA pledge if you have not done so. Just drop your card and gift in the offertory basket with the Church name on the front.

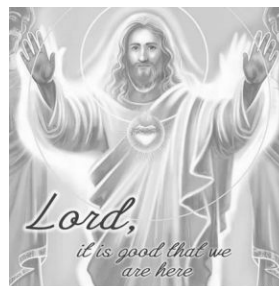

ATTENTION: This notice is for all Catholics who are admitted to the hospital. Please tell the admissions person that you are Catholic and the name of your parish. This is for all admissions, especially if you come through the emergency room. If you do not tell them, your name will not appear on the patient list that the Catholic Chaplain receives.

A Prayer for Travelers and Vacationers

God of Tobiah and his faithful dog, God of all travelers, send us an angel to keep us safe wherever we go. Grant us summertime refreshment, as you once sent ravens to refresh your holy prophet Elijah. Like Ruth and Naomi, keep us devoted to one another. Like Abraham and Sarah, may we be gracious to guests and hospitable to strangers. Bless us on our journeys, bless the people we meet, and bless our returning home, through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Today, August 6, is The Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord

At just this time of year when the harvest is abundant, we celebrate a feast of God's glory. The marvelous events of this day are told in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke. Peter, James and John were led up to a high mountain by Jesus. Suddenly his face shone as bright as the sun. Moses the Lawgiver and the great prophet Elijah appeared. They talked about Jesus' coming death and resurrection. In awe, Peter blurted out a strange suggestion. He wanted to set up booths for Jesus, Moses and Elijah. A cloud surrounded them. Then, the voice of God proclaimed that Jesus is God's son, the Beloved. The three apostles were terrified. They fell down in fear. Then, they looked up, but the amazing scene was gone. Jesus was there alone. What did Peter mean when he asked if he should set up booths? The answer is found in a custom of the Jewish harvest festival of Sukkot. During Sukkot, booths are set up. They're constructed of green branches and decorated with fruits and flowers. They symbolize creation. Moses and Elijah and all the ancestors are invited to enter in spirit. If Peter wanted to set up harvest booths, perhaps he wanted all of creation to share in the Transfiguration of Jesus. In the time of Moses, when the Israelites traveled through the desert on their way to the Promised Land, God traveled with them. God appeared as a cloud within a tent. In the Gospel story of the Transfiguration, God again appeared as a shining cloud. But instead of filling a tent or a harvest booth, the cloud surrounds Jesus and His disciples. Perhaps the human body is like the tent of God's presence. The Feast of the Transfiguration is a day of rejoicing. In Rome, the grape harvest is blessed. New wine from these grapes is used at Mass. Eastern Christians hold a harvest procession in celebration of the springtime flowers and seed that have been "transfigured" into summertime fruit and grain. Altars are decorated with fruit and sheaves of wheat.

August Faithful Challenge: Attend an Outdoor Mass This Summer

Outdoor Masses provide a relaxing, prayerful respite. Bishop Kulick's August Faithful Challenge is to attend an outdoor Mass this summer. Receiving the Eucharist nourishes the soul. The popularity of outdoor Masses soared during the pandemic, but many parishes still celebrate Mass outdoors during the summer months. You can find a list of outdoor Masses happening this summer at www.theaccentonline.org.

Attending an outdoor Mass or outdoor Eucharistic procession is an opportunity to get involved in the National Eucharistic Revival. So is attending KNOW HIM: Stunned Disciples, Thursday, September 21, 2023 at Christ Our Shepherd Center, Greensburg. Imagine their shock of Jesus' closest friends when they experienced his miracles, witnessed his crucifixion, and saw him alive again, resurrected from the dead. You will be transported back to Jesus' time and become a stunned disciple: experience Jesus' miracles, see the tools of the crucifixion, taste food from the Holy Land, and learn about other disciples like Blessed Carlo Acutis, a 15-year-old Italian website designer on the path to Sainthood. Register for this one-of-a-kind immersive experience at www.dioceseofgreensburg.org/eucharisticrevival.

Do you know of someone who is interested in learning about the Catholic Church?

Are you drawn to the Catholic Church and would like to learn what Catholics believe? Are you someone who was baptized Catholic, but not fully initiated? (Did not receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.)

Each of us is on a journey to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the setting for individuals to learn what it means to be a Catholic Christian. This is an opportunity for you to discover what Catholics believe and discern if you are called to this journey of faith. Individuals from the parish walk with you, sharing their faith and allowing you to question and explore what it means to live as a Catholic Christian. We gather to pray, to read Scripture, to explore topics of our faith tradition and to support one another in this journey.

Individuals may inquire about RCIA by calling the parish office (724-547-1911) to speak with Fr. Dan Carr or Cindy Copeland.
