*From the Desk
of
Fr. Dan*

In our first reading this weekend, Samuel hears the voice of God for the first time. He isn't quite sure that it's God – he thinks it's Eli, his foster-father. I think we can all find ourselves in that place where we hear SOMETHING but aren't sure if it's God. God can speak to us in dreams, in the words of others, and in "thoughts of the heart" – an experience that can defy words. But what if it's not God? Maybe it's my own thoughts in my own head. Maybe it's just something I ate. How do I know if what's going on in my head is God or someone else?

Unfortunately, there's no definitive way to answer that question. However, that doesn't mean that we can't use some methods of determining if God is behind it.

The first rule of thumb: God doesn't ask us to sin. If we seem to have an inclination toward doing something we know is wrong and shouldn't do, then it's probably not of God. This may seem obvious, but we can find ourselves confused when it's not clear that a sin is wrong. If it goes against God's commandments, it's probably not of Him.

The second rule of thumb: God wants to bring us into His Church. Sometimes we can get frustrated with the Church. Whether it's the Pope, our bishop, our pastor, or the people with whom we worship. This is not unusual. Remember that the Church was founded by Christ on Peter, whose name means "rock". The Church is founded on solid rock. It has been around for nearly 2,000 years now. Regardless of the people who are leading the Church at the moment, God is never trying to steer us away.

The third rule of the thumb: God does not use scare tactics like fear, shame, or guilt to get us to do something. These emotions are good ones because they are a first line of defense against evil. As much as we talk about Catholic guilt, it's primary function is to keep us from doing something we shouldn't. But if we are praying about what to do, feelings of shame or guilt are often not of God. In my experience, God uses peace, calm, and joy to communicate his desires in intimate conversation.

Silence is a condition for prayer. Talking to God requires being attentive to the more subtle ways that he speaks to us. Samuel's experience of the Lord happened late at night as he was sleeping in the presence of the ark of the covenant. I find that if I'm too distracted by the noise of my life or too tired to pray, it's harder to hear God speaking to me. It's harder to know if it's Him.

I hope that one of your New Year's Resolutions is to get to know God a little more this year. If it is, remember Samuel's experience. Spend more time in silence and look for the more subtle expressions of His love.

*Notes from our Administrator,
Fr. Paul:*

ORDINARY TIME: There are five church seasons: Advent, Christmas, Lent, the Paschal Triduum (a three-day season) and Eastertime. There are two blocks of Ordinary Time. First, in winter, come the weeks between Christmastime and Lent. Then in summer and fall, come the weeks between Eastertime and Advent. That's over half the year! On most days, in Ordinary Time, green vestments are worn. Ordinary Time isn't a season, just a way to describe the weeks between seasons. The word "ordinary" means regular, plain, run-of-the-mill. It also has another meaning. It means "counted". "Ordinal" numbers are first, second, third, fourth and so on. We count each week. There's the First Week in Ordinary Time, which begins right after the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. The 34th week of Ordinary Time comes right before Advent begins. We count the Sundays, too. The Sunday after the Baptism of the Lord is called the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, because it begins the second week in Ordinary Time. We do all this counting to keep track of the weeks so we know which scriptures to read when we assemble for the Liturgy. Each year at Sunday Mass, during Ordinary Time, we read bit by bit through one of the Gospels. One year, we read through the Gospel of Matthew. The next year, we read Mark's Gospel. The next year, Luke's Gospel is read. Then we read through Matthew's Gospel again.

The Church's biggest feast during these winter weeks of Ordinary Time is the Presentation of the Lord, on February 2. Like Carnival, the Presentation is a turning point. We look back to Christmastime. We look forward to Lent and Easter.

TOTAL GIVING REPORT: As you know, We do not publish a parish report of individual contributions in any kind of public way. We feel that your giving is honest and that it is between you and the Lord. We will be sending a statement to every parishioner at the beginning of February. Please be patient as the office staff prepares to send out over a thousand statements. We are grateful to all who are generous and we pray that your generosity continues so that our parishes can continue to grow and perform God's work.

This reminds me of a story. A priest got a call, and the man at the other end of the line said, "I'm Robert Jones and I work at the IRS. I'm calling confidentially about one of your parishioners, Mr. ____, who claimed on his tax return that he donated $15,000 to your church last year. Could you please confirm that contribution?" "Well," said the Pastor, "if you call me back tomorrow about this same time, I can assure you that the answer will be yes."

In & Around Our Neighborhood...

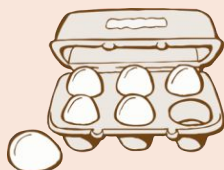

We have opened the Mass book for 2024. Intention request sheets may be found in the back of both churches. All Mass intentions have to be submitted in writing on the reservation sheet. Please read the DIRECTIONS CAREFULLY! No Masses will be scheduled over the phone. Thank you for your understanding.

JANUARY 19 IS THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE SUPREME COURT RULING that made abortion legal in the United States of America.

THE TRUTH OF ABORTION

Abortion is a terrible and shameful end for a child whose parents did not intend. That child could have lived for years ahead. They selfishly chose death instead. God's law is clear, it is a sin and a crime to take someone's life at anytime. If I would kill my child after it was born, I'd be looked upon with shame and scorn. When a doctor performs that sinful deed, he is rewarded with money he did not need.

Florence Kirsch

The decision and its subsequent results are deeply troubling. We ask: What can I do? Some are responding to that question by going to Washington to present their quiet objection with others from across the country. Our area has parishioners and others going to represent our position to elected officials. Some are responding by learning more about the facts of human life and teaching others. Some work to restrict abortions from indiscriminate availability. Some are working and praying for unborn children and their mothers. Not all might be able to make all these efforts. But everyone can do something. And so we ask again: What can I do?

Even though the Supreme Court recently reversed their decision, individual states are enacting their own abortion laws. We still have our opportunity to continue to pray for the protection of all human life.

CHILDREN ARE WELCOME! Parents do a wonderful task every Sunday in guiding their children from infancy to be aware of the wonderful surroundings of the church as they teach their children to be attentive at Mass. Sure, there are a few times when a parent has to temporarily walk out of church with a crying baby or young child, and come back shortly after the child is settled—this is normal. I encourage families with young children to sit closer to the altar. Young children become fascinated with watching, praying and singing at Mass, and therefore they are learning that their family is a part of God's family.

ATTENTION! Any parishioner who is in the ninth grade through adulthood and has received the sacraments of Baptism, Reconciliation, and Holy Eucharist but has not received Confirmation, should contact our Director of Faith Formation, Mary, at the parish office. There will be Confirmation on the Feast of Pentecost, which will be celebrated this year on May 19th at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral. Please do so by January 31st in order to complete the registration and preparation process. Thank you.
