You shall not have other gods besides me. You shall not carve idols for yourselves... you shall not bow down before them or worship them. For I, the Lord, your God, am a jealous God. – Ex 20:3, 5

I think this passage about God being jealous can strike people the wrong way. Why would God say that he is jealous? Doesn't He have everything? Also, isn't jealousy a sin?

Well, jealousy is interesting. It is not the same thing as envy and it is not always a sin. Envy mostly means being unhappy because someone else has something that you yourself want to have. This is nearly always wrong – we should actually rejoice that someone else has good things, even if we do not.

Jealousy is different than this. It is the feeling of protectiveness of something that belongs to us. We might say that we're jealous of someone who has something we don't have. That's envy, not jealousy. An envious child is one who wants to have someone else's toy. A jealous child is one who does not want to share his or her toys with someone else. This means that jealousy is not necessarily sinful. A jealous husband cannot bear the thought of his wife being with anyone else. Because of the marital covenant, this is a righteous sort of jealousy and is not sinful.

It is in this way that God is jealous. God is our creator. He made us out of love and he made us to long for eternal life with Him. But when we turn away from Him – when we follow false gods like money, power, and pleasure – he gets jealous. He knows that we won't find what we're seeking in any of those things. All of them are false promises. We don't belong to those things. We belong to Him and Him alone.

I am thankful that our God is a jealous God. It means that He cares about me. When I go astray, he will be upset and do something about it. He will care that I'm not doing what I should. And he will pursue me, invite me, and try to convince me to come back. To the ends of the earth, He will call me back to Himself. For I am His and no one else's. That's the sort of God I know that I need.

The Lay Apostles group will meet on Monday, March 4 at 2 p.m. at St. Pius X

*Notes from our Administrator,
Fr. Paul:*

THE UNFOLDING MESSAGE: A CREATIVE COMMUNITY

Jesus often spoke of a kingdom. We read of the "Kingdom of God" and the "Kingdom of Heaven". As His message unfolds, we discover that the kingdom involves a community. The gospels show Jesus as constantly surrounded by a group of people. This is not happenstance. The story of creation has God saying, "It is not good that the man should be alone," so God gave him a helper. When Jesus began His ministry, very quickly He gathered together twelve men to work with Him. These disciples represented both the beginning and the goal of Jesus' mission.

In these early days of Lent, when we seek to become better people and more faithful followers of Jesus, it is good to remember what calls us to such action. Made in God's image, we are people, who long to build a creative life for ourselves and for our world. Like the disciples, we have everyday tasks to do. Our "fishing" or other work contributes to our common life economically. Yet, we long to be creative in other ways, the life of the spirit and the warmth of human community. It is not enough to "keep body and soul together." Our souls long for more.

The disciples certainly had heard of Jesus before He spoke the words, "Come, follow me!" They must have felt the urgency to make their lives richer and more meaningful. Was Jesus subtly saying, "Come, help me create now the kind of life that God wants and the prophets called for?" Jesus was ready to show them what such a kingdom would be like. He was ready to live it out Himself and teach them how to do so. The disciples, and we, are called to see Jesus' vision for us. We are called to be learners. We are called to be healers. We are called to be co-creators of a new spirit of oneness. Join the community! Walk the walk, even though you know that some will oppose you! Jesus calls each of us to be partners in creating a new kind of life.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION, please mark your calendars for the liturgies of the Triduum (the Last Days of Holy Week) and plan to celebrate them at our parishes. The Liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday will take place this year at Visitation. The specific Holy Week schedule will appear in a future bulletin.

JUST A REMINDER that in your current Sunday envelope packet there is an envelope for Easter flowers and decorations. A Mass will be offered on Easter Sunday for the intention of those who donated for the Easter flowers.

A Lenten thought from Fr. Mark Dunmire:

Lent, a penitential season. We often ask each other what will we give up for Lent, but do we ever ask what we can add? Abstaining from beloved food and drink, or hobbies, or negative thoughts are all wonderful things we can do. But have we considered adding prayer time each day, or volunteering our time to Church ministries? Our Church universally relies on volunteers to assist our ministries from sacramental prep (sacristan) to ushers, to altar serving (children & adults), visiting the homebound, helping with parish festivals or volunteering to assist with youth ministry. These are all wonderful ways to add something to our lives this Lent. And we don't have to do this just for Lent! Our Church has needs all year round. I ask that should we choose any action, we start with prayerful discernment. You can also stop by the Church office or call in with any questions. This blessed Lent, may we come to not only abstain from the certain things we love, but also reach out in prayer and service to Jesus Christ, our loving & merciful God!
