*From the Desk
of
Fr. Dan*

We are entering the most sacred time of year for us as Catholics as we prepare for Holy Week. Meanwhile, for five individuals - Jacob Armel, Jason Besterici, Tammy DeFlorio, John Ersick, and Casie Overly - a great deal of Lenten preparation is taking place. These are the individuals going through RCIA to be baptized and confirmed as Catholics at the Easter Vigil Mass.

The five have been preparing for quite some time now. In the fall, they began taking weekly classes to learn about our faith. They have been faithfully attending Mass and growing their relationship with God and with our community. At the beginning of Advent, we formally welcomed them into the catechumenate with the Rite of Welcome. Then at the beginning of Lent, we formally sent them to the Cathedral where they were received by Bishop Kulick along with 48 other catechumens and 77 candidates around the diocese. There they were called members of the elect.

They, like us, are on a Lenten journey this year. There is a particular one as they prepare for the reception of their sacraments. As members of the elect now, they seek purification and enlightenment, inviting the Holy Spirit to purify their hearts and enlighten their minds. This is a time of reflection and preparation for them. As a part of this purification and enlightenment, during the last few weeks they have undergone the Scrutinies. The three scrutinies invite them forward at Mass to be prayed over by the community and by the priest. During this time, they also formally receive the Creed and the Our Father - prayers given to us by Christ and the Church that each of us knows well.

Watching someone go through RCIA and become Catholic can be a powerful thing for us and can help us remember our own journey of faith. This is more natural for someone who themselves went through RCIA. For someone who is a cradle Catholic, although the process can seem foreign and unfamiliar, it is still an opportunity to remember the childlike faith that we once had. It's a time to appreciate the gift of faith we've always had - the sacraments, the prayers, and the relationship with Christ that was given to us by our parents.

Please pray for these five men and women, especially as they prepare for the Easter Vigil. If you see any of our elect at Mass or at any parish event, please congratulate them and assure them of your prayers. Support and encourage them on their journey. Then, after Easter, ask them how it was or how it's going. Help them feel that they truly belong to our wonderful Catholic community here in Mount Pleasant that they will be fully joining through the waters of baptism in just a couple of weeks.

*Notes from our Administrator,
Fr. Paul:*

THE UNFOLDING MESSAGE: THERE IS FOOD FOR THE HUNGRY

Everyone needs food and sustenance. We do not know how Jesus and His disciples managed this. There was, of course, a strong tradition of hospitality in those days, but we do not know how they got along from day to day. The only suggestion comes in a side reference in John's story of the woman who anointed Jesus with precious ointment. John tells us that Judas carried the disciples' "bag" and may have stolen from it.

However they handled the need, Jesus did not let people go hungry. He let His disciples pick and eat grain from the fields, even though it was the Sabbath, when work was forbidden. A major evidence of Jesus' awareness of people's hunger comes with the story of His feeding the multitude, who had followed Him to a place away from food sources. The disciples felt helpless, but Jesus found a way. Human needs were provided for. The hunger Jesus cared most about, though, was food for the spirit. Our souls need to be fed and nourished. Jesus' prayer, "Give us this day our daily bread," speaks of this need as well as a physical need. We have to have regular spiritual sustenance. Often, this kind of food comes through prayer. Prayer is a spiritual power source. Mark gives us an interesting illustration of this. The disciples had tried unsuccessfully to cure a young boy, who had an evil spirit. After Jesus later accomplished this, they asked why they had failed to do so. Jesus answered that this can be accomplished only through prayer. To be fed by God's spirit, we need prayer.

A second step in having enough food is our willingness to share what we have. The boy, who offered the disciples his loaves and fish, demonstrates this. He gave willingly and freely. As a result, he and the multitude ate all they wanted. Living with an open, expectant and generous spirit, we find spiritual food in abundance and are enabled to walk with power.

LENTEN GUIDELINES~ ABSTINENCE: Catholics in the U.S. age 14 & older are obliged to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, the Fridays of Lent & Good Friday. The church law forbids use of meat, but does not prohibit eggs, milk products or condiments made with animal fat.
FASTING: Catholics in the U.S., from the day after their 18th birthday, until the day after their 59th birthday, are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday & Good Friday. The church law allows for only one full meal a day, but does not prohibit the taking of some food in the morning & evening. The combined quantity of the two meals shouldn't exceed eaten the quantity eaten at the full meal. The drinking of ordinary liquids does not break the fast. Note: Follow your doctor's advice if you're taking medication or have health concerns!

REGIONAL PENANCE SERVICES DURING LENT

Please make use of the times below to gain the grace of the Sacrament of Penance and prepare yourself for the celebration of Easter. There will be groups of priests available to hear confession at each of these services:

SAT, MAR 23, St. John's, Scottdale, @ 11 a.m.

TODAY, ALONG WITH CELEBRATING the Fifth Sunday of Lent, we celebrate the feast day of St. Patrick, bishop & missionary. When Patrick was 16, his father's farm in Britain was invaded. Raiders carried Patrick off with his father's servants to be slaves in Ireland. He spent the next six years tending sheep and was finally able to escape. He made his way home to Britain. He became a monk and studied so that he could return to Ireland as a missionary. He had become a bishop by the year 433. He went back to Ireland, preaching to the Irish in their own language and baptizing many. Monasteries in Ireland became centers of learning. St. Patrick's Day always comes during Lent, when the church is getting catechumens ready for baptism at Easter. Patrick used the three-leafed shamrock to try to explain to catechumens the mystery of the Holy Trinity. Irish people the world over celebrate today by wearing green. In Ireland, most Catholics attend Mass. In the U.S., there are many parades & celebrations.

ST. JOSEPH, HUSBAND of the VIRGIN MARY

Matthew's gospel describes Joseph as "a just man". In Bible times, the most beautiful compliment one person could give another was to call him or her a tzaddik, a person of justice and virtue.

Joseph trusted God and protected Mary & Jesus, despite the danger it presented. People in many countries honor St. Joseph. His day always falls in Lent, and he is considered the patron saint of the poor. Joseph is patron saint of Mexico, Canada, Bohemia (in the Czech Republic) and Belgium, too. He has become known as the Patron Saint of the church, of fathers, of a happy death and of prayer.

Please pray for the recently deceased, especially Shirley Eckman. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Join us every Wednesday to pray the rosary for peace:
11:30 a.m. at Visitation.
