Notes from our Pastor, Fr. Paul:

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY (also known as the Feast of the Divine Mercy) is a feast day that is observed in the Roman Rite calendar, as well as some Anglo-Catholics of the Church of England (it is not an official Anglican feast). It is celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter, which concludes the Octave of Easter. It is originally based on the Catholic devotion to the Divine Mercy that Faustina Kowalska reported as part of her visions of Jesus, and is associated with special promises from Jesus and indulgences issued by the Catholic Church. On March 23, 1937, Kowalska wrote in her diary that she had a vision that the feast of Divine Mercy would be celebrated in her local chapel, and would be attended by large crowds, and that the same celebration would be held in Rome attended by the pope. She wrote: "The crowd was so enormous that the eye could not take it all in. Everyone was participating in the celebrations."

Divine Mercy Sunday is also the day after the culmination of the novena of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. Kowalska wrote Jesus instructed her that the Feast of Mercy (the Sunday after Easter) be preceded by a Divine Mercy Novena which would begin on Good Friday. The first Mass during which the Divine Mercy image was displayed was on April 28, 1935 (the Feast of Divine Mercy), the second Sunday of Easter, and was attended by Kowalska. April 28, 1935, was also the celebration of the end of the Jubilee of the Redemption by Pope Pius XI. Michael Sopocko (Kowalska's confessor) celebrated the Mass that Sunday and obtained permission to place the image within the Gate of Dawn Church in Vilnius during the Mass. The devotion was actively promoted by Pope John Paul II. On April 30, 2000, the Canonization of Faustina Kowalska took place and the second Sunday of Easter was officially designated as the Sunday of the Divine Mercy in the General Roman calendar. On April 22, 2001, which was one year after establishing Divine Mercy Sunday, Pope John Paul II re-emphasized its message in the resurrection context of Easter:

Jesus said to Sr. Faustina one day: "Humanity will never find peace until it turns with trust to Divine Mercy." Divine Mercy! This is the Easter gift the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity.

The devotion to Divine Mercy Sunday grew rapidly after its designation by Pope John Paul II and is now widely celebrated by Catholics. The Divine Mercy image is often carried in processions on Divine Mercy Sunday, and is placed in a location in the church so that it can be venerated by those who attended the Mass.

A VERY HAPPY, SPECIAL DAY in the life of any parish is the day of First Holy Communion for the children of the parish. Because of the make-up of our parishes, we will be administering First Holy Communion at all parishes on the dates and at the times that follow. In this way we can accommodate all of our children and their families.

I am also pleased to announce that Confirmation for the eighth graders who have completed their formation from our eight parishes will be confirmed on Saturday, May 31, at 10:00 a.m. We will welcome Bishop Kulick to Immaculate Conception parish for this liturgy.

I would like to take this opportunity to extend to all of you a very grateful and sincere word of thanks for all that you did to make the Lenten season, Holy Week, and Easter such a spiritually and prayerfully rewarding time. The liturgies of Holy Week, the Easter Sunday Masses, the wonderful participation in the Stations, the attendance at confession and Masses, and the blessing of food baskets made this past Liturgical season a holy experience for all of us here at our parishes. I wish to thank all of the ushers, cantors, choirs, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, sacristans and altar servers for your dedicated help. Thanks to Melissa for directing the choir. To the volunteers and staff who helped decorate the churches for Palm Sunday, Holy Week and Easter, I say "Thank You!" Your gift of time was a pleasing and prayerful gift to God. I also thank you for your generosity shown to Fr. Peter, Fr. Edwin, Fr. Craig, Fr. John and myself and the parishes. The gifts of food, cards, candy and other surprises showed us how truly blessed we are to be your Pastor and Parochial Vicars. I will remember each of you at my Masses. I thank you for your gifts to our parishes in the collections of Holy Week. May God bless you always and in all ways, and may our parishes continue to grow in the way of the Lord. ~Fr. Paul

THE MASS: A Family Reunion

When families hold a reunion, they usually have a reception and a meal. During the reception, members learn who's at the reunion, what's been happening in their lives and what's in store in their future. And, during the meal, the family shares their food and themselves further—and they sense their “family-ness” with greater intensity and love. At departure, each member leaves more at one with the family than was felt on arrival. So it is with the Mass. The welcome, the readings and the homily form the reception, a time to discover who we are, why we're going. And the offertory, Eucharistic Canon, and Communion form the meal, a time to intensify our family heritage in God and each other in the binding love of family. And at the blessing, we go our ways, not separately, but more at one in the family to continue to enjoy and form family in our homes, at work, wherever. From week to week, we are called to unite and reunite in the oneness of the family we now are, the family we shall be forever. This is why we are called to come together so regularly, not for the sermon or the ceremony, but for the presence of one another in the Father and His People.

Thursday, May 1, is the feast of St. Joseph the Worker. The liturgical celebration in honor of St. Joseph the Worker dates back to 1955 when it was established by Pope Pius XII, and first celebrated the following year. Workers have long celebrated May 1 as May Day in honor of labor and as a symbol of their rights. It was the intention of Pius XII to give a Christian dimension to this day, and to teach the dignity of human labor, with St. Joseph as a model for the laborer. Appropriately, in the Opening Prayer we note that God calls all of us “to develop and use (our) gifts for the good of others” and with St. Joseph as our example and guide, we ask that God help us to do what is His will for us. Joseph's role was that of protector and provider. God's “wise and loyal servant,” for Mary and Jesus. Joseph was selfishly obedient to God, humble and quiet and perseveringly faithful. We will be blessed if we use our particular talents and energies and opportunities for God. We will enjoy what we accomplish and grow in our love of God and our gratitude to Him.

According to Church law, Trinity Sunday, June 15, is the last Sunday that you can make your Easter duty. The confession of sin cleanses us. Christ in communion is our strength. Please do not deprive yourself of such gifts of healing, strength and love. Just for clarification, the precept of the Church is as follows: to lead a Sacramental life; to receive the Sacrament of Penance regularly and Holy Communion frequently—minimally, at least once a year, between the First Sunday of Lent and Trinity Sunday.

If you don't tell us, we don't know. Help us keep our census up-to-date and our postage down. A crucial part of the continued success of our communication system is the constant updating of information about you, our parish family. Please keep our census accurate by calling the office when you have any changes to your information. Thanks!

Please pray for our recently deceased, especially Suzanne Lease. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Join us every Wednesday to pray the rosary for peace: 11:30 a.m. at Visitation.
