Notes From Our Pastor, Fr. Paul

TODAY IS GRANDPARENTS' DAY. Along with our hugs and kisses, our cards and presents, the most perfect gift we can present to our grandparents whether they are still with us on this earth or have been called home to heaven by God, is our prayers, intentions of our Mass this day and our reception of Communion for them. We honor all of our grandparents and thank them for the gifts of raising their children and grandchildren in the faith. May God continue to bless and keep you as you see your children's children grow into men and women you helped guide. Please make use of the following prayer today and always as we keep our grandparents in our thoughts and prayers.

Prayer for Grandparents

Lord Jesus, you were born of the Virgin Mary, the daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne. Look with love on grandparents the world over. Protect them! They are a source of enrichment for families, for the Church, and for all of society. Support them! As they grow older, may they continue to be for their families strong pillars of Gospel faith. Guardians of noble domestic ideals, living treasures of sound religious traditions. Make them teachers of wisdom and courage, that they may pass on to future generations the fruits of their mature human and spiritual experience. Lord Jesus, help families and society to value the presence and roles of grandparents. May they never be ignored or excluded, but always encounter respect and love. Help them to live serenely and to feel welcomed in all the years of life which you give them. Mary, Mother of all the living, keep grandparents constantly in your care, accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage, and by your prayers, grant that all families may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland, where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end. Amen.

OCIA: BECOMING A CATHOLIC (or completing your Sacraments) OCIA formal sessions are offered weekly. OCIA is the name of the process by which adult individuals and older children are initiated into the Catholic religion. If you or someone you know wants to become Catholic and has never been baptized, is baptized into another Christian religion or is baptized Catholic but never celebrated First Communion or Confirmation, the OCIA program is for you. Reach out to Jo Ann by email as soon as possible!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION With the sound of school bells, our attention is drawn to children who are either entering school for the first time or returning to their classrooms for another educational experience. We would like to think that a statement such as this would be a foregone conclusion: Children are beautiful gifts from God, precious in our eyes, and appreciated by us, respected by us, loved by us all. Unfortunately, a reading of the newspaper this summer sometimes told a different story. Cases of children neglected, rejected, abused, and even killed tore at our heartstrings. And reading further, we discovered situations where children-grown-taller have caused mayhem, destruction and sadness to loved ones due to awful moral choices. We direct the attention of all these goals that are essential for our Catholic children:

- * A Christian faith life which is both personal and communal.
- * Strong family modeling and support.
- * An education that imparts knowledge, develops and hones skills such as communication, and assists a youngster in the ways of being a civilized person.
- * A work ethic of the commitment to invest energy, talent and time in an effort to be contributing members of society.
- * Virtue or the integration of humanity's highest qualities such as honesty, generosity and discretion.

Once again, the reminder is out that all parents whose children do not attend Catholic grade school should be attending our Faith Formation classes.

JOHN THE BAPTIST Among the characters of the Bible, few were more colorful than he! Born to elderly parents in the hills of Judea, John was part of Jesus' extended family, the son of his mother's cousin Elizabeth and her husband Zechariah. He is the preborn child who "leaps for joy" at the presence of Christ, when Mary, newly pregnant, comes to visit. He is the young man who goes out into the desert to pray and fast, who wears a rough garment of camel hair, and who lives on a diet of locusts (supersized grasshoppers!) and wild honey. According to Luke's Gospel, John began a public preaching ministry in the 15th year of Tiberius Caesar's reign, around AD 28 or 29. And what a ministry it was! John's message was simple: a universal call to repent and prepare. By all accounts, John was bold. He warned tax collectors against demanding more than what was required and instructed soldiers not to wield their power violently. But he also pointed out the hypocrisy of many religious leaders and publicly admonished King Herod Antipas for stealing his brother's wife. Above all, John spoke the truth to both the poor and the powerful. In the end, that cost him not merely his popularity, but his life. John prepared the way for Jesus, but ironically, never had the opportunity to follow him. As he waited out the last months of his life in prison, there's probably nothing he regretted losing more. But when his life was on the line, John met the challenge he still places before every one of us. John avidly embraced the way of the Lamb of God.

What's New?

VISITATION PARISH Last year, we introduced a smaller version of our gift auction at our fall Slovak dinner, and it was so popular, we'll have it once again on November 1st! We'll need 30 items or baskets (so many comments that ours is one of the nicest in the area). Your generosity always amazes us! If you have some nice, empty baskets at home that you do not plan on using, drop them off in the rear of church for us to re-use at the dinner or for next year's festival. Never too early to start planning ahead! Since our space is limited, because of seating for the dinner, please call Barb at 724-547-3903 or Kathy at 724-547-2432 with the item you wish to donate or cash if you'd like to contribute for this popular Slovak dinner. Keep in mind we will also need great desserts to serve our guests. As always, we are so thankful for your generosity and prayers for each event we do for the love of God and our church. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Monday, September 14, is the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

The most common symbol of the Christian religion is what used to be a device for murdering criminals. They were nailed or tied to them and left there to suffocate. After they died, their naked bodies were left hanging as a warning to anyone who passed by. A sign of shame has now become a sign of honor. In dying on the cross, Jesus became one with the least among us. A legend is told about the cross. When God sent Adam & Eve out of paradise, they took with them a seed from the tree of life. Buried with them, a new tree grew, which in time was cut down to make the wood of Jesus' cross.

We Christians make the sign of the cross when we enter or leave a Church and when we go to sleep at night. Before we were baptized, we were marked with the sign of the cross. That stamped each of us as a Christian. The Feast of the Holy Cross began in the year 335, when churches in Jerusalem, built on the sites of the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ, were dedicated. It became a major feast, and any Christian who could make the pilgrimage to Jerusalem would try to be there for the celebration.

September 15th is the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows.

Mary lived in a country oppressed by Romans. She knew how it felt to be an unwed mother, a refugee, and the mother of a political prisoner. She experienced poverty, and her sufferings have been shared by many. In Italy in the 13th century, Jacopone da Todi wrote a "sequence" that is often sung when people pray the stations of the cross:

At the cross her station keeping, stood the mournful mother, weeping, close to Jesus to the last. Through her heart, his sorrow sharing, all his bitter anguish bearing, now at length the sword has passed. Christ, when you shall call me hence, be your mother my defense, be your cross my victory.

Wednesday is the feast of Ss. Cornelius and Cyprian.

Cornelius and Cyprian, fellow bishops, lived in difficult times. Their feast days have been celebrated together since the 4th century. Cornelius was a Roman who was elected pope after Pope Fabian was martyred. An important issue during Cornelius's time in office was how to treat Christians who had abandoned their faith during the persecution. Some bishops took them back as if nothing had happened, while others wouldn't allow any of them to return to the church. Cornelius said that people who gave up their faith should be welcomed back, but only after doing penance. This was a wise middle course between the two extremes. Cornelius was supported in this by his friend Cyprian. When the persecution began again, the emperor sent Cornelius away from Rome. When Cyprian heard about this he wrote Cornelius a beautiful letter of support. He said, "If one of us dies before the other, may our friendship continue in the Lord's presence." Cornelius did die shortly afterward, from the hardships caused by his exile.

He had been pope for only two years. Cyprian was a rich pagan teacher and lawyer in the town of Carthage in northern Africa. When he became a Christian in the year 246, many people were amazed because he had been famous for his worldly lifestyle. When an epidemic struck Carthage, Cyprian taught the people of his diocese to help the sick. He refused to sacrifice to the Roman gods, and was eventually beheaded during the persecution of Emperor Valerian.

Please pray for those who have recently died. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

11:30 a.m. at St. Pius X.

The ongoing support from our fellow parishioners and community members made the Visitation Christian Mothers' recent clothing sale successful, yet again! Our sale is very established with many returning customers; even as far as Virginia!

Our pricing system ($3, $2, $1, Bag Sale) provides affordable options for all. We've learned some buyers stock up on gently used items to donate to those in need in their areas. Buyers from thrift shops continue to provide affordable clothing within their communities. We were able to provide men's and women's clothing, in all sizes, to Gateway/ Rehabilitation Center at Frick Hospital, and to the Salvation Army. It's the sale that keeps on giving—nice! The operation of the sale, from beginning to end, runs smoothly, thanks to our many members, their families, and our friends. Some friends, Emily Perks and Brendan Baird, help every day and are disappointed when they can't. Lauren Golobish is always there to help conclude the sale. Special thanks to Barb Sandzimier and Kathy Janesko for making and selling haluski. Our efforts made $3,602.57. Thank you.

WE ARE BLESSED!
